RENOMINATED.

Senator Mulligan Named by Republicans.

Hon. Henry C. Mulligan of Natick, senator from the First Middlesex district was renominated for that office at the Republican senatorial convention last Monday. The delegates met at the Masonic hall, Watertown, at three o'clock, being called to order by Mr. Charles E. Hatfield of Newton. Mr. George H. Dale, chairman of the Watertown Republican town committee was selected as chairman and Mr. Chas. N. Hargraves of Framingham as secretary. A credential committee consisting of Messrs. Kingsbury of Holliston, Monk of Watertown and Hamilton of Framingham reported 47 delegates out of a total of 57.

Dr. O. W. Collins of Framingham then nominated Senator Mulligan with seconding speeches by representative Flagg of Holliston and Mr. Albert P. Carter of Newton. Judge Mulligan was then named by acclamation and Messrs. Carter, Kingsbury and Bridges named as a committee to escort the candidate to the hall. The senator was given a rousing welcome and responded with a brief speech of thanks, in which he reviewed some of the work of the last legislature and promised to do his best for the district and the commonwealth in the next session of the General Court.

Mr. Charles E. Hatfield was elected a member of the state committee by acclamation, on motion of Mr. W. O. Cutler of Natick.

A senatorial district committee to consist of the chairmen of the various town committees, the chairman of the city and ward committees of Newton and the member of the state committee from the district was then elected and the convention adjourned to enjoy a collation which was served in an adjoining room.

BROWN—JAMES.

Mr. Benjamin Kingsbury Brown, the son of Mrs. L. E. Brown of Auburndale, was married last Tuesday evening to Miss Louise Frances James of Cambridge, the ceremony taking place at the home of the bride on Clinton street. Rev. George W. Bicknell, pastor of the First Universalist church officiated. The bride was unattended, and the best man was Mr. William C. Brown of Melrose, brother of the groom.

A unique feature of the wedding was the fact that the ushers were brothers of the bride and groom, Messrs. George G. Brown and Charles A. Brown of Auburndale and Frederick B. and Harold K. James of Cambridge. Mr. and Mrs. Brown will reside in Newtonville.

NEW COUNCILLOR

Fletcher to Succeed Jones.

Hon. Herbert E. Fletcher of Westford was chosen by acclamation last Wednesday at the Sixth Councillor Republican Convention held in Wesleyan hall, Boston, as the successor to Hon. Seward W. Jones, of Newton, the present member of the Governor's council. Representative William F. Garcelon of Newton presided and with Mr. E. T. Colburn of Newton Centre and Aldermen Frank K. Moore of Newton Highlands were elected members of the district committee.

BOYD—KNOTT.

The most inclement weather could not succeed in marring the wedding of Miss Marion Leslie Knott, one of the most charming and popular belles of Newton's younger set, to Mr. Charles Parker Boyd of Newton, which took place in the Church of the Good Shepherd on Tuesday night, the Rev. James Clement Sharp officiating. The bride, who is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. T. Knott of Plainfield street, Waban, was gown in white liberty satin with the conventional orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley making a charming picture. She was attended by Miss Eleanor Boyd of Newton whose gown of pink satin and chiffon and bouquet of pink roses was most effective.

Mr. Murray Boutwell of Boston acted as best man and the ushers were Mr. Elliot H. Robinson and Mr. Vico Isole of this village, Mr. Jules Ellis of Providence, Mr. Allan Gould of Newton Upper Falls, Mr. Roland Boutwell and Mr. Walter Fernald of Boston. The simple Episcopal form of service was used with the customary procession and wedding marches and the whole ceremony was impressive and beautiful.

The reception at the bride's residence followed immediately, fully three hundred invited guests from the Newtons, Brookline, Cambridge, Dorchester, Jamaica Plain, Wellesley, Providence and Boston, braving the storm to wish the bridal couple joy. The house and large attached tent in which the collation was served, were illuminated with electric lights, and artistically decorated with cut flowers, palms, potted plants, vines and autumn leaves, and many beautiful gowns added to the brilliant spectacle. The reception lasted two hours, the bride and groom then going into Boston in their motor car, but the festivities lasted an hour longer, many of the guests staying to dance to the strains of an excellent orchestra which was placed behind a grove of palms.

ANNUAL MEETING.

The annual meeting of the Newton Hospital Corporation was held last Monday afternoon, President William C. Bray in the chair. Routine reports were received and the old officers re-elected with the exception of Mrs. Chas. H. Ames, who declined further service, Mrs. Julia S. Day being chosen in her stead. In place of the late A. Lawrence Edmonds, Hon. George Hutchinson was chosen. The date of the annual meeting was changed to September.

MOUNT IDA SCHOOL.

Mount Ida School for Girls opened Thursday, September 30th, with full numbers. Young ladies have come from all over the United States, and a large number also from the immediate vicinity of the school. Seventy per cent of the girls who did not graduate last year returned to the school. There have been many improvements this past year, and additions to the teaching corps. The school holds the certificate privilege of the College Certificate Board, and its educational standing is very high. The school takes its place among the best finishing and preparatory schools in the East, and everything points to a most successful year.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Alfred S. Hayes of Holliston has announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for senator in the First Middlesex District. Mr. Hayes, who is a Boston lawyer, will make the income tax an issue in the campaign. He will oppose Senator Henry C. Mulligan of Natick, who has been nominated by the Republicans for a second term.

JOINT LADIES' NIGHT.

Wednesday evening Lafayette, Waban and Home Lodges, I. O. O. F., held a joint ladies' night in Denison hall, Newtonville, about 250 attending. During the evening Mr. S. Thompson Blood, monologue artist, gave numerous selections and music was furnished by the Rlenhalter and Thomas orchestra. After prizes were distributed to the winners of the various field events, held at their annual picnic, refreshments were served and dancing was enjoyed until midnight.

The wedding gifts were handsome and costly and presented an imposing array.

After their return from a fortnight's trip, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd will reside in Plymouth, where the former is in the cotton business.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

Old Officials Renominated.

The Republican Middlesex County Convention last Wednesday at Institute hall, East Cambridge, was a veritable love feast. County Commissioner Samuel O. Upham of Waltham was named for an eighth term of three years, having served for the past twenty-one years. County Treasurer Joseph O. Hayden of Somerville was also nominated, on motion of Judge John C. Kennedy of Newton, for another term, after serving for twenty-four years. Alderman Fred W. Stone served on the Credentials Committee and Mr. Charles E. Hatfield was re-elected a member of the County Committee.

LASELL SEMINARY.

The second lecture by Mr. Leon H. Vincent will be given on Thursday evening, October 1st, at 7.45 o'clock. Subject: Ralph Waldo Emerson. The public is cordially invited to attend.

PARKS—AURNES.

The marriage of Mr. Dana Parks, a well known letter carrier of Newton, to Miss Ragnhild A. Aurnes of Waltham took place at the home of the bride in that city at eight o'clock Wednesday evening, the ceremony being performed by Rev. E. J. Peterson, pastor of the Swedish Lutheran church of Waltham.

The bride wore a gown of ivory white satin, mesalline, trimmed with lace and silk applique, and carried bride's roses and lilies of the valley, her veil being caught up with the same flowers. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. M. E. Crouse of Weston as matron of honor, wearing light gray mesalline and carrying pink roses.

Helen and Lenore Crouse of Weston were the flower girls and Mr. William Parks of Waltham, brother of the groom, was the best man. Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus was played by Miss Almira Winslow, who also played during the reception which followed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Parks will reside at 310 Lowell avenue, Newtonville, where they will be at home after January 1, 1910. They were the recipients of many and beautiful gifts.

men's meeting in the Association rooms. This is the opening meeting and Dr. Butters' many friends among the members will be glad of this chance to hear him. His subject is "Unprofitable at Best." This is the third season that Dr. Butters has given the opening address.

Mr. Wm. Macpherson, who dislocated his elbow last week, will soon be able to resume his work in the gymnasium. His many friends will be glad to know that the injured member will be as strong as ever. While partly incapacitated, the leaders corps have been of great assistance to Mr. Macpherson in handling the classes.

The baseball team met defeat at the hands of the West Newton Catholic Club on Saturday last. The game was called on account of darkness. It was poorly played by both teams on account of the poor condition of the field and the dark day. The season's record stands 15 games won and 6 lost.

Twenty-five new members have joined the Association during September, a record, which if kept up will mean a greatly increased membership during the season.

The Board of Directors meets Monday evening, Oct. 3d, 8 o'clock.

Mr. Walter Gilliam has been engaged as Boy's Work Secretary and will take up his duties Oct. 15th. Mr. Gilliam has been one of the assistant secretaries at Washington, D. C., and comes highly recommended. The Woman's Auxiliary voted to assume $300 of Mr. Gilliam's salary, being specially interested in the Boy's work of the Association.

The little city of Naperville, Ill. (3500 people), secured over $25,000 for a building. The fund will reach an average of $10 per capita. There was one gift of $5000.

Several additional subscriptions have been made to the $40,000 already pledged toward the building fund of the Newton Association. The amounts and names of the donors cannot be announced at this time. The officers of the Association, or the Chairman of the Trustees, Mr. Frank A. Day or the Treasurer, Mr. Wm. T. Rich will be glad to explain to any interested ones the plans for the erection of a permanent home for the Association. The need of such a building grows more apparent every year.

ALDERMEN.

Proctor For Library Trustee

At the regular meeting of the aldermen held Monday evening, the appointment of Mr. Thomas W. Proctor of Chestnut Hill as a trustee of the Newton Free Library to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. A. Lawrence Edmunds, was promptly confirmed. The rule requiring such nominations to be over one meeting being suspended on motion of Alderman Doherty.

President Weston was in the chair and Aldermen Avery, Burr, Day, Doherty, Gray, Jones, Lyons, Miller, Moore, Palmer, Stone, White and Williamson were also present.

The Telephone Company had a field day on its petitions for various pole locations. The company was represented by Mr. H. S. Allen, who said that the locations on Richardson street were to maintain the present service to subscribers on the north side of the street, as the present methods of reaching them must be abandoned. Vigorous protests were made by Mr. Edwin O. Childs for himself and adjoining estates and by Dr. E. R. Utley. On Mill street, Mr. Allen stated that a former order granting the work had lapsed under a time limit, and the company now wished to press the work. There was no opposition. On Eddy street, Mr. Allen said that the rapid growth of the neighborhood had called for extensions by the company and that the only way to reach the district was by poles thru this street. Protests were made by Mr. S. B. Proctor and Mr. F. P. Sanderson. On Dunklee street, Mr. Allen said that the company had exhausted every possible means of reaching a new subscriber, and had come to poles as the last resort. Mr. C. S. Luitweiler said that the whole trouble in this case was the refusal of the landlady of the party wishing service, to allow wires to be attached to trees, as the other residents had done. He protested against any poles in the street. Mr. James M. Beck protested against the poles as well as the "mere contrivance" of the landlady and Mr. James A. Darling also remonstrated.

No one appeared at hearings on poles on Warren street, Homer street, for attachments on Emerson street, Fairfax street, Temple and Fuller streets. Petitions of the Edison Co. for poles on Melrose street, Hillside avenue and for underground conduits in Walnut, Crafts and Waltham streets were also unopposed.

At the hearing on the request of the Forest Commissioner to remove 53 dead or dangerous trees, Mr. Bucknam stated that he had used the utmost care in selecting these streets, which he considered a menace to the public and had personally received the permission of the abutters for such removal. An order authorizing their removal was subsequently adopted.

Alderman Stone was delegated to draw five jurors for the Superior Court at Cambridge and drew the names of Arthur St. C. Hilton of Hartford street, Clifford R. Eddy, Cherry street, S. W. Wilder, Homer street, Edgar T. Harper, Henshaw street and Wm. P. Kerr, Lake avenue.

On the mayor's approval, requests of the Police and Moth departments for transfers of appropriations were authorized. On recommendation of the Mayor, $10,000 was advanced from the treasury for work on maintenance of streets. The mayor's recommendation for authority to sell unused land of the city, assessed for $30,930, was referred.

The bond of Edwin H. Alexander as constable was approved.

Petitions of Irving L. Sikes for appointment as public weigher, of Henry B. Barnett for a minor's license, and of Timothy D. Murphy for an auctioneer license were granted. Other petitions received were from Lilla C. Bourne for sewer in Woodbine terrace, of Bravo et al for change of name of Hillside terrace to Devon terrace, of Abdon Lefevre to locate 6 H. P. steam engine and to keep gasoline on Hawthorne street, of the Edison Co., for poles on Homer street, and of the Telephone Co. for one pole on St. James street, hearings being ordered where required for Oct. 11th.

On recommendation of committees, leave to withdraw was granted on petition to construct bridge across Laundry brook at Jackson road, on petition of the Telephone Co. for poles on St. James street, on petition for sewer in Jepsen court, on petition of W. Q. Gulliver to transfer pool room to 47 Langley road, of Sam Wax for a junk license, of Wm. T. Price for a common victualler license, 332 Centre street, of John W. Holbrook for stand on Centre street for public automobile, and on petitions of Cosmo Petrillo, John Mekas and U. Damiano to open Sundays.

On recommendation of committees, a hearing was assigned on Oct. 11 on the laying out of Loring street, $449.49 appropriated for purchase of land on Central street for drainage purposes, $19,224 granted for city expenses until Oct. 15th, and the Telephone Co. granted a relocation of one pole on Hyde avenue.

Orders were also adopted calling the State election for Nov. 2, correcting certain sidewalk assessments on various streets, correcting form of order for sewer in Blithedale street, granting the Edison Co. permit for underground conduits in Walnut, Crafts and Waltham streets, and for a special committee consisting of the mayor, chairman board of health, city engineer and street commissioner to take action on the condition of Charles river.

The board adjourned at 9.05.

Hats are like everything else—names of their makers stand for certain distinctive characteristics.

We are showing some striking styles made by Borsalino in Italy—shades and shapes that are very jaunty and just enough different to be interesting.

Of course you know about Christy's London Hats—British conservatism and solidity, with style that is law to half the world of men.

Coming home, we link Stetson's name with the best our country produces—quite as good in the American way.

The greater part of our business lies, however, in our own special lines—Cook's Avenue, Cook's Special, etc.—because we meet the tastes and needs of the greater number of men—and give sound value in quality and style at a moderate price. A. N. Cook & Co., 101 Tremont St., Boston.

BOSTON ELEVATED

Prevention of Accidents to Children

The Company has sent the following letter to the School Committees of Arlington, Boston, Belmont, Brookline, Cambridge, Chelsea, Everett, Medford, Malden, Newton, Somerville and Watertown, and also to the Supervisor of Parochial Schools. Action has been, or is about to be, taken by all of them in co-operation with the Company. The Company desires, also, the co-operation of parents and others having charge of children. It is believed that much injury may be avoided by such action.

To the School Committee of the City of Newton:—

The Boston Elevated Railway Company wishes to call your attention to its desire to prevent as far as possible injuries to children resulting from the operation of its cars in and around Newton and if possible to enlist your active co-operation to this end. In spite of every reasonable precaution taken by the Company and the generally careful operation of the cars by its employees, distressing accidents happen more often than we believe they would, if the children were carefully instructed by those in authority concerning the danger of careless playing in the streets and of stealing rides on the cars.

The fact that thus far in the experience of the Company the courts have not in a single instance held the motorman responsible for the death of a child would seem to justify one in assuming that greater care on the part of the injured would result in lessening the number of such accidents.

The Company, therefore, respectfully suggests and believes that such warning to the children attending the schools of Newton as you may see fit to have given will tend to diminish these accidents and the sufferings and grief resulting therefrom.

If agreeable to you will you kindly have the matter brought before the teachers and scholars in such form as you deem best?

Very respectfully,

Boston Elevated Railway Co.

FORESTERS ENTERTAIN.

Whist was played from 8 to 10 o'clock, ice cream and cake then being served and dancing following until 12 o'clock. BOSTON SUBURBAN ELECTRIC COMPANY.

The trustees of the Boston Suburban Electric Co. have voted to recommend to stockholders a 9 per cent reduction in the present number of preferred shares outstanding and a 2 per cent reduction in the common shares to meet the changed condition of its property account resulting from the recent sale of the Waltham Gas & Electric property to the Edison and Massachusetts gas interests. It is proposed to retire 4694 preferred and 1173 common shares which were the exact amounts of shares originally issued for the purchase of the 3274 shares of the Waltham Gas & Electric Co. held in the Boston Suburban treasury. From the sale of the Waltham property the Boston Suburban received $750,000 while the market value of the preferred and common shares to be retired is $557,909.

Under its reduced capitalization the Boston Suburban Electric Co.'s will have 45,925 preferred and 50,446 common shares outstanding.

THE EARLY BOY AND EARLY WOM.

He crept down stairs in the early dawn,
Full of eagerness to be
Of all the boys in the neighborhood
The first at the chestnut tree.

The nuts lay thickly on the ground,
He gathered them with glee;
But soon he found to his great dismay
That the worm was earlier than he.

NEW MOVE IN EDUCATION.

Rarely has it been our privilege to chronicle a more interesting event in education than the recent opening of a new Preparatory School in Boston, under the auspices of the Boston Young Men's Christian Association.

Not that the fact of opening a new school is unusual, but the peculiar and wholly unprecedented characteristics included in its organization are what give the event special interest. This school has been established with an Advisory Board consisting of Prof. Paul Hanus of Harvard College; Prof. William Warren of Boston University; James P. Munroe, Secretary of M. I. T. Corporation; Prof. Edward H. Rockwell of Tufts College; Rev. Endicott Peabody, Principal of the Groton School; Harlan P. Amen, Principal of Phillips Exeter Academy; Stratton D. Brooks, Supt. of Schools, Boston; F. E. Spaulding, Supt. of Schools, Newton; C. S. Clark, Supt. of Schools, Somerville; William Orr, Principal of Springfield High School; G. P. Hitchcock, Principal of Brookline High School; H. K. Whitaker, Principal of Salem High School; Frederick P. Fish, Member of State Board of Education; Frank A. Day, Banker; John S. Lawrence, Merchant, representing, as it will be noted, the colleges, great private schools, public schools and important business interests, the object of the entire plan being to establish a school which will incorporate the most advanced ideas and methods of these various interests, unfettered by politics, tradition or conservatism which makes rapid changes in a great school system difficult to bring about.

The school is organized as a Grammar School with day sessions only. A College Preparatory School with day and evening sessions. Polytechnic School with day and evening sessions. Electrical School with day and evening sessions. Automobile School, day and evening sessions. School of Commerce and Finance, evening sessions only. Evening Law School and Collegiate Department.

The striking characteristics of the school are male college-trained teachers; expert vocational advice; vocational training; an interlocking system between the day and evening school; close relationship with the colleges and universities for those who are going into the higher institutions; close relationship with business interests for those who are going into commerce and manufacture. The whole basis of the work is individual development and vocational training, the purpose being to train boys to be useful, intelligent, moral men, capable of doing some one thing and doing it well or preparing them for college, and at the same time giving them a vocation which would make themselves sustaining if he became necessary. This also is the feature who are valuable element. It gives the boy an appreciation of honest labor, shows him where he fits in the productive channels, and gives him a seriousness of purpose and moral stamina which is not possible when he is merely drifting on doing what he is told to do because "It is good for him."

The Association is particularly fortunate also in having connected with it a Physical Department and Gymnasium under the most careful supervision. There will also be games, sports, athletics, aquatics, summer camps, and other features, but even more valuable, possibly, is the splendidly equipped Boys' Department with its college trained Christian leaders, devoted to the moral up-building and close companionship with these men of exemplary character and abundant life, whose main object is to leave upon each boy an imprint to last him through life, and help him to stand for clean speech, clean life and fair play.

THEATRES

Boston Theatre—Sparkling with fun, bubbling over with wit, replete with catchy melody and picturesquely and charmingly staged "Three Twins," after a year's triumph in New York, at the Herald Square Theatre, comes on Monday, Oct. 4, to the Boston Theatre. The company is the original one of seventy people, with Clifton Crawford and Bessie McCoy in the two leading roles. "Three Twins" is genuinely diverting in story and humor. It has the praiseworthy quality of absolute freedom from vulgarity and conventional horseplay. "Three Twins" has for its book an adaptation made by Charles Dickson of the old farce, "Incog," with lyrics by O. A. Hauerbach and music by Karl Hoehn. The book is a very funny one. The staging is brilliant in the extreme, the whole production having been gotten up new for this season. There are lots of pretty girls in the chorus and they are all good dancers. Matinees will be given both on Wednesday and Saturday.

American Music Hall—A real pleasure feast is an appropriate term to describe the big vaudeville bill at the American Music Hall next week. A genuine sensation is the Divine Myrma who has created a furor at many of the famous French watering resorts. There is some mystery as to the identity of the Divine Myrma but there is absolutely no mystery about the wonderful beauty of her face and form. She is a delight to look at and is the most graceful diver known. In her remarkable exhibition she will be assisted by two young ladies who might well be called water nymphs. That always welcome pair of artists John C. Rice and Sally Cohen will contribute their latest laughing success "The Kleptomaniacs." Everybody knows James J. Morton, and everybody has laughed at him more than once. He is the monologue comedian who in his inimitable way asks and answers his own questions. There is no question as to the merit of Johnson and Dean who have the reputation of being America's foremost colored act. Another novelty act on the bill will be the Vindobona in their grotesque musical comedies. The balance of the bill will include that wonderful American Soprano, Edith Helena, Joe Denling and Company and other acts fully up to the high standard of those mentioned.

Keith's Theatre—Since Annette Kellerman went to Harvard and was pronounced by Dr. Dudley A. Sargent as the nearest approach to a perfect woman that he had ever seen, this young Australian has become one of the most widely discussed women in the entire world. Miss Kellerman will be the feature of another one of those bills that are making Keith's talked about all over the country; bills made up almost entirely of headline acts. This week it will include, besides Miss Kellerman; Albert Whalen, the Australian entertainer, who created such a furor when he appeared here a year ago; Creamy & Dayne, who will remain over another week to present one of their New England comedies; and Belle Blanche, now conceded to be the best of the mimics. An entirely new feature that will make its appearance will be Saraa, a wonderful young violinist, who created a sensation abroad by his wonderful execution and personal magnetism. On the same bill will be Pat Rooney and Marion Bent, always headliners, the Sullivan Pasquelena Company in a sketch; the Martette Brothers in a roller skating specialty; and the Musical Avaras, a company of Europeans playing all kinds of instruments, having the largest chimes in the world.

Hollis Street Theatre—Charles Frohman will present William Collier, foremost among the comedians of the day, at the Hollis Street Theatre on Monday evening, October 4, for a limited engagement in "The Patriot," a farce in three acts by J. Hartley Manners. There is no more welcome event to local theatregoers than the appearance here of William Collier. His fun-making is irresistible and his plays invariably clean, wholesome and diverting. "The Patriot" is a farce in three acts with the scenes laid in such widely contrasting centres as Bull Frog, Nevada, and London. The characters are typical of the far West and the British capital. The central figure, portrayed by Mr. Collier, is a fine example of the big-hearted, bustling, well-educated, up-to-date mining promoter—a thoroughgoing, high-spirited American type, who as a matter of fact, however, is of English birth and bears the name and title of Sir Augustus Plantagenet Armitage. Charles Frohman has made an exceptionally beautiful production of "The Patriot" and he has surrounded Mr. Collier with a company that is the largest in point of numbers and by far the most capable that the popular young comedian has ever had and including: M. L. Heckert, Wallace Worsley, Frank H. Westerton, Thomas Martin, Richard Malchen, John B. Adam, M. E. Kelly, Marjorie Wood, Marion Abbott, Paul Marr, Phyllis Young, Lawrence Grant, Reginald Mason, William Norton, Annie Esmond, and Helena Byrne. During the engagement matinees will be given Wednesdays and Saturdays.

Castle Square Theatre—Next Monday "The Circus Girl" will be seen again at the Castle Square with the same company, the same brilliant stage settings and costumes, and the same company, the same chorus of forty singers that helped to make its popularity last season. It is one of the most popular of musical comedies, and its bright particular star is Mary Young in the role of Lucille, the slackwire walker. This part she has made peculiarly her own, and in the coming revival she will duplicate her success of last season. Miss Gertrude Binley may also be expected to triumph again as La Favorita, the circus rider; Donald Meek will carry the humor of the production on his shoulders as Biggs, Theodore Friebus will sing topical songs again and again as the Vicomte Gaston, and Mr. Craig, Mr. Roberts, Mr. Hassell, Bert Young, Wilfred Young, Kate Ryan and Mabel Colcord will all be seen to advantage. There is no doubt that "The Circus Girl" will be the reigning sensation of the present John Craig Season at the Castle Square.

THE BIJOU THEATRIUM.

Nonantum Square, Newton.

The Bijou Theatre at Nonantum square, Newton, opened for the season on Sept. 23. The Bijou is neatly fixed up, has a seating capacity of 400 and with raised floor opera chairs, and is a very attractive place of amusement. The entertainment in Motion Pictures, Illustrated Songs, Travelettes, Lectures and high class singing specialties are given every evening at 7.30 to 10.30. Special matinee every Saturday afternoon at 2 P. M. for the children. The programs are carefully selected, the Association Films are used, and 9000 feet of up-to-date pictures are given every week. The Bijou solicits the patronage of all lovers of wholesome amusement. The admission is 10 cents. Children admitted to matinee for 5 cents.

ALL OTHERS ECLIPSED.

Annual Food Fair, Mechanics Building, Boston.

What has been most fittingly called "The World's Greatest Food Fair and Home Furnishing Exposition" was opened in the vast Mechanics Building on Huntington Avenue last Monday morning with an attendance of the day at 10 o'clock at night. The thousands before the doors closed for fair will be open every day, Sundays excepted, from 10 A. M. to 10 P. M. until Saturday evening, Oct. 30, and the indications for the first week are that every record of the past several seasons will be easily surpassed. There is so much to interest and instruct visitors that one scarcely knows where to begin to tell about it. The exhibits alone are a vast source of study and enjoyment for the greater part of them are of a character which has to do with the economy and the comfort of the home and the individual; things good to eat, things good to see in the environment of the family circle, things good to wear and all are most artistically displayed.

Colonial Theatre—Rose Stahl has once more triumphed in Boston in her clever comedy of stage life, "The Chorus Lady" and she is enjoying a remarkable prosperous engagement at the Colonial Theatre where she will remain until Saturday, Oct. 9. Miss Stahl who is fresh from a triumph in London, where she remained 100 nights at the Vaudeville Theatre on the Strand, still makes Patricia O'Brien, the sprightly, vivacious chorus girl heroine of James Forbes' comedy, a living, breathing personality, one which endears itself to every auditor. Her long run at the Park Theatre two seasons ago is well remembered, so that she was accorded a series of ovations on her first performance at the Colonial. All Boston knew of her wonderful success just achieved in London. "The Chorus Lady" which is acknowledged the first and probably the only play to present the life of the chorus girl as it is behind the scenes in our large theatres, has been a sensation since its premier in New York four seasons ago where it ran for one year to crowded houses. It has lost none of its charm during its absence but on the contrary seems more delightful than ever.

IS IT FAIR?

Not many years ago a committee waited upon the citizens of Newton soliciting subscriptions to a fund with which it was proposed to purchase the Clafin estate, a considerable portion of which was to be utilized for an athletic field. Their solicitation met with a cordial response, the required amount was raised, the land purchased, the athletic field laid out. It was generally supposed that it was for the benefit of the public, that is to say, that the field was to remain open, thus affording an opportunity for the public to witness athletic contests. grand stand. The public is obliged to pay to gain admission. The writer does not object to a nominal fee for admission to the grand stand, as there are those who are able to pay, but does consider it very unjust to deprive the many parents and friends of the pupils, who absolutely cannot afford to pay an admission, of the privilege of standing outside to see the sports. It is still more unjust to double the admission upon holidays. If the athletic association needs money to promote its work, there is ample wealth in Newton to provide for any emergency without resorting to this very unjust measure. The writer doubts if the athletic association has a right to enclose a field against the public which paid for it, and is of the opinion that if a test case were made, the fence would have to be dispensed with.

THE NEW STORE.

The new millinery store which has just been opened in the first floor of the Willard on Centre street, Newton, is most attractively furnished in Melrose oak, mahogany cases, cheval glasses and dainty draperies, making a most effective setting for the beautiful imported hats which Miss N. M. Manning and Miss B. A. Downing have selected for their opening. The window display reflects great credit on the taste and skill of these ladies, and the new store is well worth a visit by all those interested in millinery.

If you are acquainted with Happiness introduce him to your neighbor. "If the shoe fits, wear it," is a time-worn saying; but with a woman if the shoe fits she takes it back because it is too big.

ENGLISH AS SHE IS WROTE.

By William Hickox.

The stenographer who writes merely by sound without regard to sense is of less use than a phonograph, for the phonograph will at least accurately record sound. It is the business of the stenographer to turn verbose or redundant dictation into good English. In fact the essential difference between the mere shorthand writer and the stenographer lies in the ability to do this very thing.

When I was the editor of the American Shorthand Writer, in the early eighties, Mr. Ritchie, one of the veteran reporters of Chicago, wrote me that he had been rudely awakened from his early impression as to the duties of a shorthand writer by a kind friend. "He informed," said Mr. Ritchie, "that speakers were not at all likely to adopt resolutions of thanks to a reporter who paraded before them their defects in style, diction or phraseology. As to my own agency in the matter, he gave me the startling information that a man had got to learn that he is thirty-two kinds of a fool before he begins to know anything." I took this lesson to heart, and after a very painful season of reflection and practice, I found myself in a position to confess that I was one of them. I had a revelation of the first magnitude. It seemed, and very strangely to me, that accuracy in assisting a speaker to perpetrate some grammatical or rhetorical crime was not the article of great value in the stenographic market; that the shorthand writer must edit the twaddle and verbal surpluses which the lawyer frequently split in the legal forum, or become a mere parrot and be so rated.

It is certainly true that the possession of intelligence, or, let us say, "gumption," to make a good transcript from a bad dictation is of the highest value in the stenographic market. High speed is seldom required, verbatim work almost never. What is wanted, and what is best paid for, is accuracy in properly presenting the ideas that the speaker intended to convey.

It is a deplorable fact that the high school product of today has very little working knowledge of English. The meaning of common words, to say nothing of their spelling, is to most graduates as a sealed book. For twenty-nine years I have been attempting to make stenographers, and my most difficult task has been, not in producing shorthand writers, but in teaching the student the simple things in English that were supposed to be familiar to him when he came to me, and to cause to germinate in his mind the impulse to do his own thinking. As the stenographer must at all times have his wits about him, when his notes are not quite plain common sense should save him from making egregious blunders, at least. As I have said, a verbatim rendering is rarely necessary; a few clear notes should enable an intelligent stenographer to construct as good, or a better, letter than if he followed slavishly the exact words spoken. But the disaster that may attend an attempt to "edit" without a comparative knowledge of the subject reported is shown by the experience a stenographer recently had in writing a letter concerning an overcharge. The dictator said "We charge you fifty dollars instead of six." This was quite plain in the notes, but the dictatee, a young lady, reasoned that he could not have meant "six" but "sixty," without regard to the context. She changed the letter to read that the overcharge was "fifty dollars instead of sixty," which would have been ridiculously excessive. To this the dictator naturally objected, and carefully explained to her that he meant what he said and what she had written. The letter was rewritten, this time "fifty dollars instead of six," but with a misspelled word. Again the letter was returned, and when she came to the place about the excessive charge, she changed it to read, "We charged you sixty dollars instead of fifty." The superintendent, in desperation, passed the letter on to the manager's office, from whence it was returned with the query: "Shall we change our rates or will you have the letter changed?" But the superintendent changed stenographers.

Twenty years ago I sent a list of seventy-six words to the principals of all the high schools in New England, offering a prize to the pupil in the graduating class who would spell the greatest number of them correctly. The words to be pronounced by the principal. These words were all common, every-day words like judgment, acknowledgment, seize, piece, etc.—not a "catch word" in the list. Eighty schools competed, with the result that not a pupil in any of them spelt the entire list correctly, while upon the average more than twenty-five per cent. were spelt wrong.

I have kept a record of all the misspelled words contained in the transcripts of pupils of my school for the past seven years; and the mistakes made in spelling common words ought to shame a kindergarten. No one who has not actually come into daily contact with the educated ignoramus would believe it possible that supposedly cultivated persons could so butcher their mother tongue, for, be it understood, those persons, by the usual standards, are presumed to be "educated," many of them being ex-school teachers and university graduates; none of them below the rank of high school graduate.

Below are a few choice blunders that are of record:
Billy do (billet-doux).
He intested in gull-edged securities.

Such misspellings as "benift," "prehaps," "principle" (for pal), the mistaking of the adverb too for the preposition to, "accept" for "except" and vice versa, are too numerous to be worth recording, save that the impression is abroad that the dwellers of the "Modern Athens" are presumed to know better.

To be sure the dictator is often at fault. He is not infrequently uneducated, not to say illiterate, but he is warranted in expecting his stenographer. If he pays enough for a real one, to be able to correct his errors of diction. Mr. Ritchie's assertion that "accuracy in assisting a speaker to perpetrate some grammatical or rhetorical crime" is not the distinguishing characteristic of a high grade reporter should be bored into the head of the stenographic numskulls who seek to excuse obvious blunders in transcriptions by saying, "It's what was dictated."

BARTLETT-HINCKLEY.

Miss Katherine Hinckley, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Baxter Hinckley of Chestnut Hill, became the bride of Mr. Hartley Williams Bartlett of Worcester, yesterday, the ceremony taking place at noon at Grace church, Newton, Rev. Laurens MacLure, the rector, officiating.
The bride wore a gown of white satin, en traine, with waist and sleeves of Irish lace, the yoke being made of alternating narrow and broad tucks of chiffon, and the whole trimmed with folds of the white satin. She was accompanied by Miss Dorothy Caldwell of Newtonville, as maid of honor, wearing pale lavender, a black picture hat, and carrying white chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids, the Misses Louise Emerson, Marion Berry of Newton, Katherine Ames, Marion Stutson, Terese Roquemore and Eleanor Pratt of West Newton were gowned in satin, two in primrose yellow, two in palest green and two in peach pink. They all wore black picture hats and carried white chrysanthemums. Mr. Eveleth Vose Hill of Worcester was the best man.
The guests were seated by the ushers: Messrs. Haskell Williams, Roland Hastings, Albert Darling of Worcester, James Hunnewell of Boston, Harlan H. Bullard, Jr., and Arthur Hitchcock, Jr., of Brookline.

A small reception for the immediate families was held immediately after the ceremony at the Hinckley residence, 219 Commonwealth avenue, Chestnut Hill, which was attractively decorated with palms, hydrangeas and fall flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett were assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester B. Hinckley, parents of the bride and Commodore and Mrs. Chas. W. Bartlett, parents of the groom.
Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett will reside at Worcester, where they will be at home after January first.

It may well be gravely questioned whether Dr. Sprague's decision not to make a pedagogue error in trying to reduce his teachers to mere slavery, killing in them the joy of work—which is a teacher's right, and a pupil's salvation.

MRS. CARPENTER DEAD.

Mrs. Harriet E. Carpenter, the widow of Rev. Chapin H. Carpenter, died Sunday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Alva Hovey, Summer street, Newton Centre, in her 72d year.

Mrs. Carpenter returned to Newton Centre three years ago after long missionary service in Japan, giving up that work because of failing health. She was born here, and half a century ago her mother, Mrs. Martha Rice, was one of the best known women in Newton Centre. She was graduated from Lasell seminary, Auburndale, and spent three years as preceptress of Colby academy at New London, N. H.

She then went to Burma with her husband, where she became greatly interested in missionary work. Her principal labors were among the Koreans, where she established a school for girls. The climate did not agree with the health of either her husband or herself, however, and this caused them to transfer their labors to Japan. Her appeal for teachers was met in 1871 with the organization of the Women's foreign missionary society in Boston, and since then this society has supported about 135 women teachers who, it is estimated, have instructed 2,850,000 pupils. Her husband died in 1885, but Mrs. Carpenter continued work in Japan until three years ago.

Funeral services were held from the Hovey residence on Tuesday afternoon and were largely attended. Rev. Thomas S. Barbour, D. D., foreign secretary of the Baptist Missionary Union delivered the eulogy, and Rev. Maurice A. Levy, pastor of the First Baptist church at Newton Centre offered prayer. The burial was in the family lot at Newton cemetery.

During the summer vacation the gymnasium of Waban school is undergoing a thorough remodeling. When completed it will have a floor space 40 by 50 surrounded by a running track. It will be provided with the best modern physical training, shower baths, thoroughly equipped toilet and locker rooms and bowling alley. It will be lighted by electricity and heated by hot water.

AN INVITATION.

The residents of the Newtons are extended an invitation to visit the Bay State Trust Company of Boston, which is singularly well located for their use.

It is the nearest Bank to the Back Bay Station and is situated opposite the Public Garden entrance to the Subway.

Not only has it every banking facility, but also modern fire and burglar proof vaults and coupon rooms on the entrance floor, which does away with going up and down stairs.

The storage vaults for silver are ample in space and reasonable in price.

One whole side of the banking room is reserved for ladies and contains finely appointed reading and writing rooms. These are now in the process of enlargement and will be equipped with every convenience and set apart entirely for their use and comfort.

Accounts may be opened and deposits made by mail safely and profitably. Interest is allowed on deposits. Letters of Credit, Travelers' Cheques and Foreign Drafts are issued, available anywhere.

This Bank is conducted with the aim to please its customers and the officers are solicitous of meeting them personally. Suggestions relative to the improvement of the service of the Bank are desired.

Miss Grace Irwin, formerly principal of the Sandwich (Mass.) high school took charge of the Latin department. China painting was added to the courses, this being in charge of Miss Ella Fairbanks of Boston. JUDGE BISHOP DEAD

After A Long And Tedious Illness

Judge Robert R. Bishop, for many years a well known resident of this city, died last evening at his home on Beacon street, Newton Centre, after an illness of three months. Judge Bishop was taken ill last June while attending court, and during the summer suffered from a serious attack of dysentery, which left him in an enfeebled condition, from which he never rallied.

Robert Roberts Bishop was born in Medfield March 31, 1834, the son of Jonathan P. and Eliza (Harding) Bishop. His father was a prominent lawyer of Norfolk county, a member of the state legislature and cast the ballot that elected Charles Sumner to the U. S. senate.

Judge Bishop was fitted for college at Phillips Andover. Ill health, however, prevented him from entering college. His plans for the future were changed and he entered the law office of Brooks & Hall of Boston, with this firm and subsequently with Hon. Peleg W. Chandler, supplemented by a regular course at Harvard law school, he received his legal education.

He was graduated from the Harvard law school in the class of 1857 and spent a year in the office of Mr. Chandler, having been admitted to the Suffolk bar soon after his graduation. He opened a law office of his own in Boston in 1858, and in 1861 formed a law partnership with Thornton K. Lathrop, under the firm name of Lathrop & Bishop. This partnership was afterward enlarged by the admission of Arthur Lincoln as junior partner, and continued until 1879, when it was discontinued.

On Dec. 24, 1857, he was married in Holliston to Mary H. Bullard of that town. The three children of that union, Robert R. Bishop, Jr., Representative Elias B. Bishop and Joseph T. Bishop, survive their father, Mrs. Bishop having died several years ago. Judge Bishop removed to Newton in 1863 and in 1874 was elected to the Massachusetts house of representatives from this city. He declined a re-election to the house in 1875 that he might serve as one of the water commissioners for the construction of the local water works, but in 1878 he was again elected to the state senate and re-elected in '79, '80, '81 and '82. He was president of that body in 1880, 1881 and 1882.

He was the republican nominee for governor of the state in 1882, and was defeated for the office by Gen. Benjamin F. Butler by a vote of 133,946 to 119,997.

MISS MCKENZIE DEAD

Former Auburndale Teacher

Miss Eleanor J. McKenzie, for many years a teacher and principal of the C. C. Burr School at Auburndale, died Monday at her home in Brookline following a long period of illness.

Miss McKenzie was born at Newark, N. J., but much of her early life had been spent at Westfield, where she was graduated from the State Normal School. She first taught at West Springfield, and came to Brookline about 1880. Her methods of individual teaching soon won the recognition of local educators. For some time she continued to teach in the Pierce School in that town until about ten years ago when she was called by the school committee of Newton to teach in the Burr School, and when the new building was erected in the Auburndale district, she was asked to take the principalship in which position she made a notable record until ill health compelled her to give up active work.

She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, herself widely known as a writer on economic subjects, and Mrs. Frank J. Hammer of Brookline.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 124 Harvard street, Brookline, where she had made her home. Rev. Ambrose W. Vernon, D. D., pastor of Harvard church, officiated. The body was taken to Westfield, where final services were held at the cemetery chapel on Wednesday.

ENJOYABLE PROGRAM.

The Auburndale Village Improvement Society announces a series of entertainments beginning Oct. 11 to raise money for civic improvement in ward 4. There will be six entertainments in the series, as follows: Oct. 11, male quartet; Nov. 8, music and readings by professional talent; Dec. 13, concert by Massachusetts Institute of technology glee, mandolin and banjo clubs and dancing; Jan. 24, "The District School of Blueberry Corner" by home talent; Feb. 14, Miss Marjorie B. Cooke in original monologues; March 23 and 29, Dramatics by home talent to be followed by dancing.

In 1884 he was chosen a delegate to the republican national convention in Chicago.

He was appointed a justice of the Superior Court in 1888. He was a trustee of Andover Theological Seminary and of Phillips Andover Academy.

The funeral will take place Sunday afternoon at 3.30 at the First church, Centre and Homer streets, Newton Centre.

ANNUAL MEETING

Auburndale Improvement Association

At the annual meeting of the Auburndale Village Improvement Society held Wednesday evening, Oct. 6th, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, E. Barnard Squire; vice president, J. W. McMillan, E. J. Frost, Franklin T. Miller; treasurer, Henry G. Hildreth; secretary, Charles E. Valentine; executive committee, C. W. Blood, C. S. Ober, G. M. Fiske, F. M. Tyler, Carl R. Parker.

The retiring president, Mr. G. M. Fiske, gave a resume of the work done under the auspices of the society during the past year, the most important being the laying out of Nye park at the station, a matter which had occupied the attention of the society for about three years. There was a general discussion and much work outlined for the coming year.

TEACHES DEAF AND DUMB.

The many friends of Miss Mabel P. Whitman of Newton, for several years a teacher in the Hyde school at Newton Highlands, will be pleased to learn that she has resigned her position as instructor in lip-reading in the Maryland State Institution for the Deaf in Baltimore, where she has been for three years, and has accepted a position as a teacher of articulation in the Penn school for the Deaf and Dumb at Mt. Airy, Philadelphia. This is considered one of the finest schools of the kind, as it is one of the largest in the country, and Miss Whitman is fortunate in receiving such recognition of her success as a teacher by her appointment to an advanced position in such an institution. She declined a position in the New York City schools, established last year, to accept the Philadelphia one.

This seems to be another instance of the success of former Newton teachers when free from the irksome supervision deemed necessary in our Newton schools.

Miss Whitman received her early training with the teachers at the Horace Mann school in Boston and at the summer school at Northampton.

LASELL SEMINARY.

Mr. Henry Turner Bailey will give a series of four lectures on "The Home Beautiful" at Lasell Seminary, Auburndale. The first of these will come on Thursday evening, October 14th, at 7.45 o'clock. Subject: Furnishing the Best Room. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Grover and Miss Hutchinson are also respectively first vice president and financial secretary of the League Auxiliary.

ATKINS-RANDALL

The wedding of Miss Bernice Mildred Randall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Randall, and Mr. George Edwin Atkins, of San Francisco, Calif., formerly of Newton Highlands, took place at the home of the bride, 67 Ashland street, Medford, on Monday evening.

She was attended by her twin sisters, Misses Ruth and Ruby Randall, who wore white chiffon over white satin trimmed with pink and carried pink roses. Mr. Henry Warren of Somersworth, N. H., was the best man.

Several hundred guests were present at the reception which followed and were presented by the following ushers: Messrs. Russell G. Randall of Medford, brother of the bride; Charles F. Johnson, Jr., of Newton Highlands; Walter S. Brown of Boston, and Dr. Samuel G. Underhill of Groton. The music was furnished by an orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. Atkins will reside in Berkeley, Calif., but will remain in Massachusetts this week in order to attend the wedding tomorrow of Mr. Atkins' sister, Miss Ethel E. Atkins, 143 Buckminster road, Brookline, to Mr. Charles F. Johnson, Jr., of Newton Highlands.

FAELTEN PIANOFORTE SCHOOL.

At the close of its second week the Faelten Pianoforte School finds a very satisfactory increase in registration as compared with previous seasons. Considerable musical activity is also in evidence. Two recitals have already been given. The first on September 30th, by Miss Alice Forlin, class of '09, was a splendid success. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mildred Sargent, as maid of honor, and Mr. Harold Merrill Mayo, Harvard '08, of West Newton was the best man.

A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Hooper left for their future home in Portland, Ore.

On Wednesday afternoon the Pierian Club held its first meeting of the season at the home of the President, Mrs. E. H. Child. At the close of the business session, the remainder of the afternoon was spent in relating "Our Summer Experiences," Mrs. E. C. Cooper sang a selection.

THE KRAKAUER PIANO

is popular with young and old, pupil and teacher, amateur and virtuoso. The forty years experience behind it have made possible a mechanical perfection seldom equalled, and its marvellous singing tone is the delight of all who hear it.

On a basis of comparative values the KRAKAUER is certainly entitled to first consideration, for in intrinsic worth it surpasses many instruments of much greater cost. A glimpse at the artistic possibilities of the Krakauer coupled with its moderate price will prove a pleasing revelation.

THEATRES

Tremont Theatre—"The Candy Shop" has landed squarely on the theatrical bullseye, known in Boston and elsewhere as "popular approval," and as a result the Tremont Theatre is besieged nightly. "The Candy Shop" is mostly fun, comedians, comedienne, song hits, more fun, clever dancing, pretty girls, and then lots more fun. It is an exuberant, happy-go-lucky affair, as the Boston Globe has it, with room only for the cheerful things of life. Rock and Fulton, whose vaudeville successes are still fresh in mind, excel in travesty, in screaming satire, in capering character dances. Mr. Lator, the comic hit of "Coming Thro' the Rye" two seasons ago, is unique in his droll portraiture of the blundering tailor, with a wit of his own and a visage made for comic pantomime.

Park Theatre—"A Gentleman From Mississippi" holds first place among successes of the season and is drawing audiences that will fill the Park Theatre eight times a week. Thomas A. Wise in Senator Langdon is a capital success, and all respects to the breezy but cynical reporter, Haines, as portrayed by his co-star Douglas Fairbanks. No wonder Theodore Roosevelt remarked it was "a corker."

American Music Hall—Mimics and imitators may come and go but it has been truthfully said of Cecilia Loftus, known throughout the world as "Cissy" will go on forever. That is why so much interest is being manifested in the exclusive engagement of Miss Loftus at the American Music Hall next week. During her engagement next week she will give impersonations and suggestions of Harry Lauder the great Scotch comedian, Sarah Bernhardt, Yvette Gilbert, Carrie DeMuir and others. The discovery of the identity of the Divine Myrna as none other than Ethel McDonough, the pretty Boston girl and one time popular drummer of Boston Fiddlers, and the great interest aroused by this fact leading out, has induced William Morris, Inc., to hold this sensational act over for another week. Those famous Travesty stars, Fred Hallen and Molly Fuller, will present the biggest of all their successes, "A Lesson at Eleven P. M." As a mirth provoker Eddie Gray will land close to the top of the bill.

Hollis Street Theatre—William Collier opened his Boston engagement Monday evening at the Hollis Street Theatre in "The Patriot," the three-act farce in which he kept New York audiences laughing all of last season. The Boston critics were unanimous in their praise of Manager Charles Frohman's brilliant star and the clever players in his supporting company, and agreed that Mr. Collier and "The Patriot" were the most successful laugh-raisers of many seasons. This is the pith of the unstinted praise showered upon both star and play by one of the cleverest writers of the Boston press:—"Mr. Collier's deliciously dry brand of humor has rarely been more happily exploited than in the present offering. He plays the character of the Englishman who gave his heart to America, in the true spirit of farce, but with delicacy and refinement that is wholly captivating. There is never a suggestion of coarseness, buffoonery, even in the moments of hilarious burlesque. It is a performance to be remembered with satisfaction and delight."—Globe.

Castle Square Theatre—So great has been the popularity of "The Circus Girl" upon its revival at the Castle Square, that Mr. Craig will continue it for another week. Last winter this musical comedy proved itself the triumphant success of the season, and there is every sign that its reward will be no less in the way of crowded houses and continuous appreciation. Every moment of "The Circus Girl" sparkles with fun, and it is an incessant cause for laughter during the entire three hours of its performance. It should be noted that matinee performances, as well as evening ones, are given daily, and intending patrons will be wise if they secure their seats in advance. The rush for seats for the second week is already tremendous.

Kelth's Theatre—That Annette Kellermann still continues to be vaudeville's biggest attraction is shown by the wonderful interest manifested in her at Kelth's during the week. Miss Kellermann's singing has a fascination about it that is hard to explain. Miss Kellermann heads a splendid all-around vaudeville bill, on which there will be another bright particular star in the person of Louise Dresser, who has been particularly fortunate in the selection of songs, and she is singing several that are becoming instantaneous hits. Another big musical number will be given by Homer Lind & Company. The Three Kentons are one of the strongest comedy teams now before the public, introducing the famous "Buster" who keeps the audience going from start to finish. A beautiful act is that of Mlle. Chester and her wonderful dog who does posing that seems almost wonderful. The other features of the bill will be the Quigley Brothers, Irish comedians; Carbery Brothers in a singing and dancing act, and Zeno, Jordan & Zeno in acrobatics.

ENJOYED BY THOUSANDS.

It must not be forgotten that every one in the great list of attractions at the World's Greatest Food Fair and Home Furnishing Exposition now being held in Mechanics Building, are free to all patrons. These attractions include the celebrated old time circus of J. W. Gorman, where one can enjoy the very finest of arena acts. For the week the acts to be seen here include bareback equestrian feats by the great De Mott, acts also upon horseback by the dashing Mlle. Elise; educated poodles and dogs of Torelli's school; Yager and Kemp, the acrobatic comedians; Maximo, king of the wire; the De Motts in a double carrying act on horseback; Cora, a very pretty girl on the flying rings; White and Eager, white faced clowns especially engaged to make the children happy; Maud, the famous "Hee-Haw" mule who sends everybody away in a right merry mood; and many others. Another great free attraction is the moving picture theatre where, as an added attraction, one can now actually witness the coming of Dr. Cook back to civilization; his arrival and reception at Copenhagen and the honors showered upon him by the king and people of Denmark. There are many other free attractions such as the daily concerts by the famous band of Marco Vessella with its fifty talented musicians; the concerts by the students from Booker T. Washington's Tuskegee Institute at Tuskegee, Alabama, and the exhibition of the wireless telephone. To the first 1,000 ladies purchasing tickets between the hours of 10 and 11 o'clock every morning a dainty souvenir will be presented.

The action in many conventions during the past week has made many converts to the cause of direct nominations in this state. The Republican councillor convention at Lynn was the most notable, with open charges of the purchase of delegate's credentials,
three unsuccessful attempts to cast ballots and a final resort to roll call with challenges of certain men to vote on credentials of absent delegates. Another instance of failure to properly represent the will of the people was in the Cape senatorial convention, where the candidate from the Vineyard was defeated by the ballot of the delegate of his neighboring town of Tisbury, supposedly friendly to his candidacy. In other places, the conventions were purely formal and preliminary, making it strongly evident that where there is no contest,
a convention is unnecessary, and where there is a contest, a convention is a most uncertain method of obtaining the result the voters have approved.

The Republican ticket headed by Governor Draper should receive a large majority in this city, where men of business can appreciate fully the work Governor Draper has done the past year towards bringing the work of the state down to a solid basis.
All who are conversant with state affairs are loud in their praise of Governor Draper and his methods of transacting business.

In selecting new candidates for the board of aldermen it wouldn't be a bad idea to learn where they stand on the proposition to reduce the water rates. Citizens should understand that they are paying 25 per cent more than they should under the present arrangement and it lies with the board of aldermen to make the reduction.

NEWTON CENTRE PLAYGROUND NOTES.

The teams of the Junior Football League are busy practicing and much interest is being taken by the younger boys. It has been decided to allow boys over twelve years old who weigh less than ninety pounds to enter this League. These boys should see Mr. Howard, as they will be allowed to play only on certain teams.
The following is a list of the teams entered and their coaches:

Bishop Gates, Gordon Ewing; Al-
berts, Robert West; Hustlers, Jack O' Brien; Young Americans, George Chappelle; Beacons, Henry Derusha.
The first game in the Intermediate League will be played next Tuesday.
There will be six teams in the League and a good schedule will be arranged.
The Newton Centre team is doing good work under Capt. Norman Thompson and a good eleven is assured.

The directors of the Newton Theological Institution have granted to the residents of Thompsonville for a term of at least five years the use of a four acre plot on Langley road for playground purposes. This is to be fenced off and equipped by the Playground League and its development and use to be under the special care of the Thompsonville Committee, which consists of Mr. Badger, Mr.
Parker, Mr. Pearson, Mrs. Badger,
Mrs. Pearson, Miss Clark, and Miss Sylvester. This committee is also taking steps to present to the trustees of the Newton Library the urgent demands of the Thompsonville District for a permanent branch library and reading room.

Mr. Waldron H. Rand, Jr., has been elected to fill a vacancy of the exec-

Mrs. Lees of Oak street leaves next Tuesday for Manchester, N. H., where she will remain until Friday as delegate from the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society to the general convention.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. church met with Mrs. Edwin Thompson of High street on Monday afternoon and began the study of the Latin countries. Some very interesting papers were read on Italy.

The Pierian Club held the first meeting for the season at the home of Mrs. Child of Champa avenue on Wednesday afternoon. Tickets for the course of entertainments which are to be given in Wade hall this winter were distributed among the members and as the first entertainment of the course comes Wednesday, Oct. 13, the ladies will have to get busy and sell as many tickets as they can.

A most unique affair was a camp tea given by Mrs. Willard at Cold Spring Grove last Tuesday afternoon. It was another link added to the chain of Pierian teas that have been such a success, both socially and financially the past three months. About 36 attended and as three motor launches were in readiness most of the ladies enjoyed a sail on the river. On their return a camp fire was blazing and all enjoyed coffee, sandwiches and doughnuts.

Mr. Frank Fanning of Summer street enjoyed a trip to North Adams last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Lord of 39 Ellis street gave a 21st birthday party for their son, Clarence Sawyer Alden, Oct. 1st. About 40 guests were present, including friends from Melrose, Malden, Wellesley and Newton Centre. Miss Martha Stevens of Wellesley Fells, in her usual pleasing manner, read a poem entitled "Twenty-one Today." The "K-an savez Club" presented Clarence with a very fine silk umbrella, also a mysterious box. He received many more gifts, among them being several substantial sums of money. The special guests of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Taft. The house was beautifully decorated with cut flowers, the dining-room being especially attractive. Heve Smith of Newton Highlands catered to the inner man, a chief feature being a birthday cake, surmounted with 21 candles, each standing in a rose cup. The contents of the cake affording much merriment for all. The rest of the evening was spent in playing games. Post Office being the most attractive game. At midnight the party dispersed, wishing Clarence "Many happy returns of the day."

Safety For Your Estate

Our method of administering estates and trust funds has not only all the advantages of an individual trusteeship, but other points of superiority that one-man direction cannot have. Sickness, accident or death cannot endanger a trust confided to us, because no one man is responsible for it. Our executive board act together, and are ready for business every business day in the year.

Every investment made, or other important action taken, represents the collective wisdom of a group of men expert in trust management, and their services cost an estate no more than it would pay an individual.

All our securities are officially inspected three times a year. We give bonds equal to twice the amount of the personal property of an estate we administer; and these bonds are backed by a guarantee of $4,500,000. An individual acting as executor or trustee rarely is required to give security.

MR. GILMAN DEAD

Long Prominent In Affairs Of Church And State

Hon. Gorham Dummer Gilman, for many years consul general in Boston and New England for the Hawaiian Government and for more than two-score years well known in the whole sale drug trade in this city, died on Sunday at his home in Newton, in his eighty-eighth year. While he had not been in the best of health for some time, his condition only recently took such serious form as to cause anxiety on the part of his family. Mr. Gilman had spent most of the summer season at Marblehead and had returned about a fortnight ago to his home in Newton.

Mr. Gilman was born in Hallowell, Me., on May 29, 1822, the son of Samuel Kinsman and Lucy Gorham (Dummer) Gilman.

Upon completion of his studies at the Hallowell Academy he was a clerk, for a time, in a store, and gave up his work to follow the sea. In June, 1840, he sailed from Philadelphia on the brig Grecian, for Valparaiso and Callao. On the return voyage he was transferred to the ship Gloucester of Boston, on which he went to Honolulu, and there, in 1841, he began a clerkship for a business firm and at once began to learn the language of the country.

He made the acquaintance of King Kamehameha III., and of four kings who succeeded him, including King Kalakaua, also Queen Kapiolani and the present deposed Queen Liliuokalani. Mr. Gilman received from these various royal personages many decorations and gifts. His mastery of the native language was so easily accomplished that he became very proficient.

At the first news in 1848 of the discovery of gold in California Mr. Gilman left Hawaii for the United States. His association there with the other seekers after wealth entitled him to membership in the organization of California's pioneers, and in later years he was vice president of that association. Returning to Hawaii in the spring of 1849, Mr. Gilman continued as a merchant there until 1861, when he returned to the United States. He moved to Newton in 1865, having established the drug business in Boston with his brothers, John A. and Samuel K. Gilman. He bought a residence on Baldwin street, which he continued to occupy up to the time of his death.

Mr. Gilman took an active part in local affairs, his house becoming the meeting place of leaders of the Republican party thereabout. An earnest worker in Eliot Congregational church, Mr. Gilman was early identified with that religious body. In the Sunday school he was for more than a quarter of a century leader of a Bible class. When the Newton Y. M. C. A. was founded thirty-two years ago, Mr. Gilman was prominent in the movement. He was its second president and occupied the chair for three years. He originated the plan of distributing Thanksgiving dinners to the poor under the association's auspices.

When Newton became a city in 1874 he was one of those who strongly opposed the idea. It was his belief that it could better be divided into two towns, one to be called Newton and the other Nonantum. He was always a firm believer in the town form of government, although later he became a member of the City Government, serving as councilman in 1874-75 and as alderman from ward 7 in 1876, the first year that ward was established.

He was a representative to the General Court in 1889-1890 and served as Senator in 1891-1892. In his candidacy for the Governor's Council, he was defeated by Hon. Joseph R. Lee.

His appointment in 1893 to the position of consul general at the overthrow of the monarchy was due in part to his long residence in Hawaii and his intimate acquaintance with the principals on the field of political strife in the islands.

When Queen Kapiolani visited Boston in 1887, Mr. Gilman was resident interpreter for the royal party. The acknowledgments of the king and queen Mr. Gilman received in the form of royal decorations sent him by the king. His services as consul general in New England terminated with the annexation in 1901. He had probably the largest collection of books pertaining to Hawaii in this part of the country, and his library was a museum of Hawaiian curiosities, paintings and photographs.

He was one of the original associate members of Charles Ward Post 62, G. A. R., a thirty-second-degree Mason, a member of the Odd Fellows and Encampment and the Newton Republican Club. As a member of the Masonic craft he had been chaplain of Newton Royal Arch Chapter more than thirty years. As an Odd Fellow he was a charter member and the first initiated into the first Odd Fellows' lodge instituted in the North Pacific Ocean. Representing the Boston Druggists' Association, Mr. Gilman had been a member of the State Board of Trade. For some years he was chairman of the Committee on Post Office and Postal Laws. As delegate to the Boston Associated Board of Trade he was chairman of the committee on United States Department of Commerce and Industries and a member of the committee on customs.

He was prominent in the Hawaiian Club of Boston and was the oldest member of the Twentieth Century Club and belonged also to the Massachusetts Society of Sons of the American Revolution. He was twice married, first on Oct. 5, 1868, to Elizabeth E. (Horton) Field of Providence, R. I., who died on Nov. 2, 1872, at Newton. Mr. Gilman on May 6, 1874, married Adelaide Louise Sears, daughter of Eben and Eliza Fair (Crease) Sears of Boston. His wife survives him, together with a son, Gorham Abbott Gilman, and two daughters, Mrs. George Angier and Miss Ethel Gilman of Newton.

The funeral was held at 2.30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon from his home at 9 Baldwin street, Newton. So large a number of friends had assembled to pay tribute that the house was filled. Rev. Lyman Abbott, D. D., of Brooklyn, N. Y., a relative of Mr. Gilman, assisted in conducting the services, which were in charge of Rev. H. Grant Person, pastor of Eliot church. There was no music and no eulogy. Mr. Person conducted the scriptural part of the services and read two poems: Tennyson's "Crossing the Bar" and Whittier's "Immortal Love." Dr. Abbott offered prayer.

Burial was in the family lot in Newton cemetery. At the grave, members of Dalhousie Lodge, A. F. and A. M., conducted the Masonic committal service, under the direction of Worshipful Master Charles E. Hatfield. The pallbearers were members of the Young Men's Club of Eliot church, of which society Mr. Gilman was an honorary member. They were Thomas Weston, Jr., president of Newton board of aldermen; Allan C. Emery, president of Newton Y. M. C. A.; George N. Putnam, Theodore E. Lockwood, Edwin O. Childs, Jr., and Carlton L. Ellison.

NAUTICAL TRAINING SCHOOL.

The Massachusetts Nautical Training Ship RANGER arrived at Gibraltar from Genoa on Monday, Sept. 27th, and is now homeward bound via Funchal and Bermuda. The ship will probably arrive in Boston early in November. The RANGER has made good time on the cruise, and is now three days ahead of her schedule. The trip from Gibraltar usually occupies between four and five weeks. Upon arrival in Boston, the fall graduating class, numbering about twenty, will receive their diplomas and certificates. The ship has visited ports in England, Denmark, Sweden, Holland, Belgium, Spain, France and Italy, and the summer cruise has been a pleasant and profitable one in every respect. Reports received from Comdr. William F. Low, U. S. N., superintendent of the school, state that the instruction and practical work is being carried on in an extremely thorough and satisfactory manner.

"A wise son maketh a glad father." Just so does a wise purchase please the buyer. No user of a "WINCHES-TER" steam or hot water heater regrets his purchase. It lasts. Made by Smith & Thayer Co., 236 Congress street, Boston, Mass.

YOU CAN ORDER your COAL by TELEPHONE?

WAG has said, that married men are divided into two classes,—those who put in all their coal at once and those who buy a ton at a time.

It doesn't make any difference which class YOU belong to, the TELEPHONE is your purchasing agent. It saves you delays, steps and trouble and meets any emergency that can arise.

To the COAL DEALER, the telephone is indispensable. It keeps him in constant touch with both ends of the track,—the sources of supply and of demand,—for the Bell Long Distance lines cover the country.

IMPROVEMENT SOCIETY.

A meeting of the executive committee of the Auburndale Village Improvement Society was held in Society hall, Wednesday evening with President E. B. Squire in the chair.

Standing committees for the ensuing year were announced as follows:—membership, John W. McMillan, George H. Bourne, F. Porter Gore, Charles S. Cowdrey, W. S. Wagner, H. W. Greenleaf, Colon S. Ober; entertainment, Rufus Estabrook, Charles W. Blood, Mrs. Mary E. Herron, F. Porter Gore, Chauncy B. Conn; publications and publicity, Raymond L. Bridgman, Francis M. Tyler, Wilfred G. Paine; delegates to civic federation, Mr. George M. Flske, Mr. Colon S. Ober.

Mr. Sisk, the principal of the Charles C. Burr school, by invitation addressed the committee on the possibilities of securing the use of the old school house for a gymnasium. By removing a partition at a small expense, a large room on the second floor could be made suitable for games of basketball. In connection with this Mr. E. J. Frost urged the desirability of forming the boys into a junior auxiliary of the society making them responsible for the care of the building.

The suggestions were warmly approved and Mr. Flske was instructed to interview the city officials and ascertain if the use of the building would be permitted.

The matter of providing a suitable playground was further discussed and it was voted that a committee be appointed to formulate plans and present suggestions for a satisfactory location and laying out of the grounds.

Many helpful hints and encouraging remarks were made and indications are that the work of the society will be carried on with renewed vigor.

TABLE WANTED.

The Nonantum Day Nursery Association needs a dining-table at Stearns Neighborhood House.

During the winter, when many classes and clubs are conducted at the house, a large dining-table is necessary since the dining-room must often serve as a class room.

It is believed that some one may possess an old dining-table, in good condition, which would admirably serve the needs of the house. The association is convinced that the owner of such a table will appreciate the opportunity thus afforded, to extend its usefulness.

Response to this request may be made to Miss Luella Turner, Stearns Neighborhood House, 281 Watertown street, Telephone Newton North 7114, or to Mrs. G. H. Wilkins, clerk of the Nonantum Day Nursery Association.

HODGES-ROSS

Miss Harriet Almira Ross, the daughter of Street Commissioner and Mrs. Charles W. Ross, became the bride of Mr. Arthur Webster Hodges of Newton Centre last Tuesday evening, at a most attractive home wedding at the Ross residence, Hull street, Newtonville. The ceremony was performed at 7.30 o'clock by Rev. Maurice A. Levy, pastor of the First Baptist church at Newton Centre. The bride wore a gown of white satin crepe and was attended by Miss Ina M. Liddell of Hyde Park, as maid of honor, wearing pink messaline. The bridesmaids, Miss Carrie E. Hale of Newtonville and Miss Lucia A. Young of Dedham wore light blue messaline. The little nieces of the bride, Gertrude G. Ross and Gladys W. Ross of Newtonville, as flower girls, and her nephew, Robert S. Savory of Newtonville, as ring bearer, attracted much attention. Mr. Ernest S. Hodges of Newton Centre was the best man and Messrs. William J. Hodges, Percy W. Hodges of Newton Centre, George W. Ross of Newtonville and Harry A. George of Melrose were the ushers.

A largely attended reception followed until ten o'clock, Mr. and Mrs. Hodges being assisted in receiving several hundred friends by Mr. and Mrs. Ross, parents of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hodges, parents of the groom. The house was beautifully decorated with palms, dahlias, gladioli and autumn leaves. After a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Hodges will reside at 78 Hull street, Newtonville, where they will be at home after December 1st.

D. A. R.

The Lucy Jackson Chapter, D. A. R. of Newton, met with the Misses Allen, 35 Webster street, West Newton, Monday, Oct. 11, at 8.

The Regent, Mrs. Arthur P. Friend, presided at the business meeting, and Mrs. Frank W. Pray and Mrs. Henry Whitmore were chosen as delegates to attend with the regent, the state convention which was held at Pittsfield, Oct. 12 and 13.

Miss Lucy Clark Allen gave the chapter some delightful music, and then the speaker of the afternoon, Mr. Edward E. Allen from the Perkins Institute for the Blind, told in a most interesting manner of their work at that institution and of their proposed move to Watertown, near the Newton line.

After singing "America" the guests adjourned to the dining room, where delicious refreshments were served by some of the young ladies attending the Misses Allen's school.

DIED.

WILLIAMS—At Newton Highlands, Oct. 11th, John Sidney Williams, aged 47 years.

CORNER STONE LAID

Archbishop W. H. O'Connell of Boston honored the parish of St. Mary's church at Newton Upper Falls last Sunday afternoon by laying the corner stone of their new church building.

The impressive ceremony marked an epoch in the progress of the first Catholic parish in this city, for when the edifice is ready for occupancy next spring it will be one of the finest of any of the Catholic parishes of Newton.

When the service began at 3.30 on the floor laid over the foundations for the new edifice the surrounding grounds were occupied by hundreds of spectators. The hill running back from the opposite side of High street and the tops of nearby buildings furnished vantage points for many others.

The service opened with the singing of hymns by the congregation, and included saying of the rosary by visiting clergymen, the singing of hymns by the choir, a stirring sermon by Rev. Florence Halloran of St. Peter's church, Dorchester, the laying of the cornerstone by Archbishop O'Connell and benediction.

The cornerstone was laid in the northwest corner of the edifice. The box contained copies of the Globe, a number of other publications, United States coins of the time and records of St. Mary's church.

Among the visiting clergymen assisting in the service were Vicar General George J. Patterson, Rt. Rev. Mgr. James Moriarty of Cambridge, Rt. Rev. Mgr. McGuinness of St. Thomas' church, Jamaica Plain; Rt. Rev. Thomas I. Gasson, S. J., president of Boston college; Rev. J. Millerick of St. Joseph's church, West End; Rev. Fr. Driscoll, Lawrence; Rev. Michael J. McManus of St. Mary's church, Brookline; Rev. Thomas Flanagan of St. Joseph's church, Medford; Rev. Matthew Flaherty of St. Bernard's church, Concord; Rev. Daniel C. Roridan of Sacred Heart church, Newton Centre, and Rev. W. H. Fitzpatrick of St. Gregory's church, Milton.

NEWTON MAN ARRESTED.

Lewis H. Tappan, 38 years old, of 17 Oxford road, Newton Centre, was arrested here Wednesday night for the Providence police as an alleged fugitive from justice.

Tappan was secretly indicted at Providence last Monday for conducting a bucket shop in that city, and the Newton police, at the request of the Providence authorities, had been looking for him since then.

Tappan with his family moved to this city from Providence about two months ago. He was not well known to the police, and it was due to the gaudy of Inspector Fletcher that he was apprehended.

CITY HALL.

Dr. Francis Geo. Curtis, chairman of the board of health, leaves tomorrow for Richmond, Vt., to attend the annual convention of the American Public Health Association.

Registration closed at city hall on Wednesday evening with a total of 5583 names on the voting list, a loss from last year's registration at the time of the state election of 108.

Mayor Hutchinson and Forest Commissioner Charles L. Bucknam have issued notices which will be distributed to every property holder in this city during the next few days, stating that the destruction of eggs, caterpillars, pupae and nests of brown tail and gypsy moths must be made before Dec. 1. The notices state that if property owners fail to carry out the order the work will be done by the forestry department and the cost will be assessed in whole or in part on the land, becoming a lien on the property. The order requires the burning of brown tail moth nests in attics or furnaces, bonfire being declared insufficient to destroy the caterpillars. The city will treat trees on private property for a period of one year, but work may be done by contractors, although it must pass inspection by the forestry commissioner.

FIREMAN DEAD.

Mr. John S. Williams, captain of Truck Two at Newton Highlands for many years, died at his home on Harrison street, Elliot, last Monday, after a long illness with paralysis. Mr. Williams was 47 years of age and had been connected with the fire department since 1880. He is survived by a widow, four sons, Harry, Fred, Sidney and Arthur and one daughter, Emma, all residing at Newton Highlands.

Funeral services were held from his late residence on Wednesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Albert N. Slayton, rector of St. Paul's church. Flags were displayed at half mast on all the fire department buildings of the city during the funeral services.

INCOME TAXATION.

At the time our government was founded, to protect our "infant industries," a protective tariff was adopted, this was necessary and our manufacturers prospered under it. What were, at that time, infant industries have, many of them, long ago passed their infancy and childhood periods and are now stalwarts, needing but very little protection. At the present time there are many industries that only need a tariff sufficient to cover the extra cost of labor in this country. There are some industries that could, on an absolute free trade basis, defy the world. Since March 4th, 1909, a special session of Congress has been held, it was called by President Taft to revise the tariff, as had been promised by the Republican party in their campaign platform, after being in session five months, they finally passed a new tariff bill. Any one who gave any thought to the subject could not fail to see, that it was impossible, in the time given to the discussion of the question, to give adequate thought to the matter in hand. The committees of both branches of Congress held meetings and were supposed to hear testimony, pro and con, on the tariff, but it proved to be of not much worth, for only one side of the question was very much considered. The protected interests were on hand in large numbers, they sought to maintain the rates of the Dingley bill and in many cases to make the rate still higher. In a very few lines there was a very strong effort made for a reduction of the tariff, most notable of these was the tariff on Hides which was finally successful and the Dingley tariff of 15 per cent was stricken out and Hides were put on the free list. The consumers were very sparsely represented. The bill, as passed, calls for the expression of the opinion of the whole country on the advisability of an Income Tax. An Income Tax is a righteous tax. Nothing comes nearer to being right, than the idea that all should bear their part of the burdens. An Income Tax should be made a part of the Constitution by an Amendment to that effect. An Income Tax is on exact line with the principles on which our country is founded which are equality for all, choosing our own rulers, and making the government democratic instead of autocratic. According to those principles every citizen should bear his part in supporting, in all ways, his government. There should be a graduated income tax, every one having an income of $500 and above that sum according to his means, if those who are rolling in wealth and are continuously adding their millions, paid a tax, an equitable tax, the tax question would not be a nightmare, as it now is to many. Is it not right that all should pay according to their means? Do all do it? I guess not. The taxes bear very inequitably on the people. Who pays the greatest per cent, according to his means, of the taxes. It is those who are trying to secure a home, they have more or less of an equity in the property they control, and all over and above their equity is owned by savings banks who are secured by a mortgage, and those who have money to lend, they being secured by a mortgage, in many places, the property is assessed at its full value, and the owner finds out when he receives his tax bill, that not only is he taxed on his equity but he is taxed on what he owes, on the property, it is in reality a tax on his poverty. Could anything be more absurd? But absurd or not, he has got to pay his taxes or have a portion of his property sold at auction to pay the tax. Every man can come very near a just estimate of what he is worth, he knows better than any one else whether he is paying his just proportion of the taxes, if he conceals his property and thereby escapes paying a just tax, he is doing a cruel wrong to his neighbor, for what he escapes from paying has got to be paid by those whose property is all in sight. The city or town's bills have got to be paid and the rate is advanced enough to raise the desired amount. Come to the point of giving a sober thought to this subject. Isn't it a right down mean thing to do, to evade a tax which can be met, many times, without being felt and knows that by so doing you have wronged your neighbor. Yet thousands do this and consider themselves smart if they succeed. Does any one believe that the Standard Oil Co., the Steel Trust, the Meat Trust pay taxes anywhere near approximating what the poor man pays. Within five years the Standard Oil Company made returns to the Government acknowledging that their income was over 40 per cent of the capital employed that means that for every dollar expended, they received in profits over 40 cents, in a single year. Such a state of affairs ought to be made impossible by law. All over 15 per cent should have gone to the public in shape of a lower price of oil and other of their productions. Twenty or more years ago a man living in Boston was assessed on $300,000 worth. He demurred about paying on that amount, and said he would move out of the state, and did move to another state. He lived only a few years after moving. When he died his estate inventoried $3,000,000. The sequel of this matter was that the state to which he had moved had a law taxing inheritances, if I remember correctly, 5 per cent. His heirs received many thousands of dollars less than they would have done had this man continued to reside in Boston and paid his tax on $300,000. Our tariff and tax systems are very far from being scientific. It should be the constant endeavor in state and nation to make them more systematic. The income tax is a step in the right direction. H. C.

A MISTAKEN IDEA.

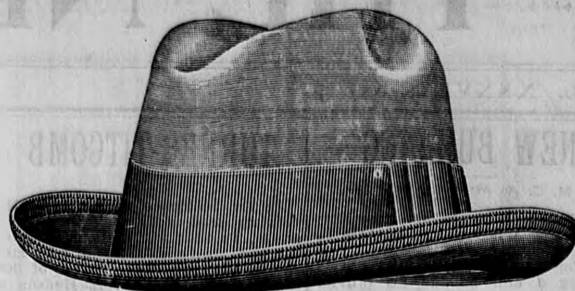

Many people have gained the impression that only the very weakly can afford to sit for the beautiful photographs made at the studio of Morris Burke Parkinson, 603 Boylston street (Copley square), Boston. This is a mistake which can be corrected by calling or sending for price list. Prices, considering the quality of work, will be found very reasonable. Now is the time to sit for Christmas Portraits. Visitors for inspection are always welcome whether they desire sittings or not.

GAS

THE LIGHT OF QUALITY

What elements go to make up quality in illumination? Leading authorities on the subject agree on the following: Diffusion (softness), steadiness, color.

The Welsbach Reflex (inverted) gas lamp gives greater softness and freedom from glare than any electric light-source. The intrinsic brilliancy which measures the glare of the different light-sources are given by Dr. Bell as follows:

Electric arc,	10,000 to 100,000
Electric incandescent,	200 to 300
Welsbach,	20 to 25

The Welsbach lamp is perfectly steady; there is neither flicker nor waver.

In point of color the light of the Welsbach lamp is near to that of "average daylight."

CITY POLITICS

Many Changes Coming In The Board Of Aldermen

Even before the battle is waged over state affairs, the attention of our citizens must be turned to municipal politics. If the best results are to be obtained. There is little disposition to oppose the nomination and subsequent election of Mr. Charles E.
Hatfield as mayor. While it was first thought that his candidacy would arouse antagonism, the past few months have brought about a general feeling that his excellent work in maintaining the high standard of our city government, while chairman of the city committee, and his constant efforts towards better political conditions in the larger political arena, deserve recognition and it is even hinted that the Democratic party will endorse his candidacy. This condition is a great and deserved compliment to Mr. Hatfield and also reflects credit on the political sagacity of our citizens.

The board of aldermen will probably be considerably changed, as many of its members who have served the city for five, six and even seven years are firm in their decision to retire from public service. In ward one, Alderman Holmes retires on account of increasing business cares, and three candidates are mentioned for his office as aldermen at large for two years. They are ex-alderman Reuben Forknall of Nonantum, Mr.
Frank D. Frisbie of the ward committee and Mr. Arthur W. Blakemore.
Alderman Doherty, who now holds the office of ward alderman will undoubtedly be returned for another term.
In ward two, Alderman Leonard, now completing his first term will be returned for two years and Alderman Cabot, who has served for six years may retire, although there is some pressure being brought to bear to have him continue another year. In case Mr.
Cabot decides to retire, Mr. Willard
S. Higgins is suggested as a candidate.

Ward three is all at sea regarding successors to Aldermen Palmer and Webster. Mr. Palmer has given six years of extremely valuable service
and thinks he has done his full share, while Mr. Webster, who leaves today for a six months' business trip to South America, retires on account of business reasons. At the present time their successors have not been selected although many good names are suggested.

In ward four, Alderman Miller will again be a candidate, and Alderman Lyons, elected last year as a Democrat, may also seek re-election. It is possible that Alderman Miller, who now is an alderman at large, may run as ward alderman against Mr. Lyons, in which case Mr. Bernard Early will probably be a candidate for the two year term. If Mr. Miller decides for the two year term, the Republican candidate for ward alderman is an unknown quantity.

In ward five, Alderman White, who will be elected a representative to the General Court in November, will retire and Mr. Thomas J. Sullivan
mentioned as his successor is
mentioned as his successor is
mentioned as his successor is

In ward six, Alderman Gray will succeed himself, and Chestnut Hill has induced Mr. Albert F. Benis to follow Alderman Burr, who retires after four years of conscientious service.

Ward seven is the hot bed of the present campaign, as all three of the present aldermen retire, President Weston, on account of removal from the ward, Alderman Day, whose seven years' service have been extremely advantageous to the city, and Alderman Clarke, who has given four years of faithful work on important committees. For the nominations as aldermen at large, there is no opposition to the suggestion of Mr. Walter H. Barker and Mr. Loren D. Towle.
For ward alderman a contest is now in sight between Mr. Nathan Heard and Mr. Arnold Scott. Mr. Heard's name has been often mentioned for the board of aldermen during the past few years, while Mr. Scott has been asked to run by some of the influential men of the ward. It is possible that the pending contest may be averted and a harmonious arrangement made, but at present both men are candidates for the office.

For school committee, there is absolutely no interest at the present time, and Messrs. Bassett of ward 2, and Parker of ward 6, Mrs. Davidson of ward 4 and Miss Cobb of ward 5 can be re-elected if they care to accept further service.

BRAE BURN CLUB

Enlarges Its Club-House At West Newton

Important improvements have been recently made on the club house of the Brae Burn Country Club on Fuller street, West Newton.

This work has been going on since June and now is approaching the point where the progress toward completion will be rapid. The women members will be the chief gainer, also those who like to live at the club, for the former ladies' locker room has been converted into two bed-rooms, while in the new wing there will be six more bed-rooms and a parlor. Several of the rooms have been so arranged that they may be turned into suites, and the entire arrangement, under the watchful eye of Superintendent South-all of the club, is one highly satisfactory to the members.

The alterations are more extensive than apparent at first glance and probably will cost the club more than $15,000, outside of furnishings. The old entrance under the stone wall, from Fuller street, will be the new main entrance to the club from the street,
and will be much improved by elevating the stone archway a foot or two.
Automobiles then may drive up abreast of the entrance and their occupants have a covered approach to a waiting-room or reception hall at the foot of the stairs in the new wing.
This little room will be fitted up with cushioned wall settees, and probably one or two chairs, where people waiting for automobiles may take life easy while waiting. The old driveway entrance from the street will be used exclusively for carriages.

From the reception hall referred to
there will be a short flight of stairs leading to the main hall, on the right of which will be an entrance to the ladies' cloak room, and on the left to the men's. Adjoining the ladies' cloak room will be their reception parlor, a spacious apartment facing the pond, with large windows and plenty of light.

Down in the basement of the new part, encroaching on the old, will be the new ladies' locker-room, with one hundred or more lockers, shower and tub baths and all other conveniences.
A separate stairway to the lockerroom has been built for the ladies, and from this room there is a subway entrance from and exit to the links, entirely apart from the men's quarters in the clubhouse.

On the second floor of the addition are the parlor and four bedrooms and on the same floor, in the old building, are the two bedrooms where the lockerroom was formerly. On the third floor are two more bedrooms. There are four new private baths, in connection with these new rooms, also three additional showers in the new section.
Some of the space in the new wing
also has been utilized for an extension of the billiard and poolroom, which will be twice as spacious as the old, allowing for a second pool table and a billiard table.

These are not the only alterations
in the house. A new and large boiler room has been constructed, by an excavation apart from the clubhouse and constructed entirely of cement. The walls vary in thickness from six to thirteen inches and remove from the clubhouse as vast a quantity of heat which is little relished in the building.
A new boiler with a capacity of 750 gallons, will replace the present one of 120 gallons capacity. The telephone service also will be vastly improved, with a new switchboard, four trunk lines and a telephone in every one of the rooms.

On the golf course there have been numerous changes, already referred to in these columns, with more traps and a deepening of many of the old ones. The putting greens have been subjected to constant weeding and are now approaching the state where they could hardly be excelled. By the time the big match between the Ross brothers and McNamara and Brady takes place next Wednesday
they should be at their best.

MOTHERS' REST.

The annual meeting of the Mothers'
Rest Association of Newton Centre will be held in the vestry of the First Congregational church of Newton Centre, on Thursday afternoon, October the twenty-first at 3 o'clock. An interesting story of the season will be told and the usual reports read. There will be music and tea will be served at the close of the meeting. A large attendance is desired.

LIZZIE G. WIDGER, Sec'y.

POLICE NOTES.

As a result of frequent complaints of Sunday gunning and trespassing on the large estates in the Thompsonville and Chestnut Hill districts, the police had three men in court Monday for trespassing on the John Lowell and Daniel D. Slade estates yesterday.

Patrolman Groth testified that he found Maltivo Chuegrano on the Slade estate Sunday morning with a shot gun, and asserted that when he placed him under arrest the prisoner offered $2 for his liberty. He was fined $5. The policeman testified that in the last few weeks many squirrels and birds had been shot in that vicinity, and that the gunning took place principally on Sunday mornings.

Gerardo DeBilippi, 42, and Luigi Scialdone, 30, paid fines of $5 each for trespassing Sunday morning on the Lowell estate. Patrolman Cronin testified that the men had a saw and hatchet and had cut down two large trees. The prisoners declared that they found the trees already felled,
and that they were on their way to Jamaica Plain with the hatchet and saw.

—The Universal Men's Club held its meeting in the parish house last Monday night. There was a large attendance. Thirteen members united with the club. The address was given by Mr. Winthrop Marvin on "Our Merchant Marine." It was one of the most instructive and forceful that has ever been delivered before the club.

JUDGE BISHOP BURIED.

Prominent men in all walks of life paid the last tribute to Judge Robert R. Bishop of the superior court on Sunday afternoon, filling the First Congregational church at Newton Centre, where the funeral services took place at 3.30 o'clock.

The floral offerings were many and included beautiful tributes from organizations and individuals. Two hours earlier prayers were said at the family home at 559 Beacon street in the presence of immediate relatives.

The church service was conducted by Rev. Edward M. Noyes, the pastor, who delivered an earnest eulogy, saying that he had intimately known Judge Bishop in public and private life many years and that his character was one of sterling honesty and helpfulness.

"Eternal Goodness," "When the Long Day Comes" and "The Love Divine That Stoops to Share" were sung by the Lotus male quartet.

Among those attending the service was a delegation from the Middlesex county bar association consisting of Hon. Samuel L. Powers, Hon. C. Q. Tirrell, Winfield Scott Slocum, Selwyn Z. Bowman and A. H. Wellman. The bar association of Essex county sent W. H. Niles, the president of the bar association; Judge Henry T. Lummus, Daniel N. Crowley and James H. Siske.

Among the judges who attended the services were Chief Justice Marcus P. Knowlton and Justices Henry N. Sheldon, Henry J. Brayley and John W. Hammond of the supreme court, Chief Justice John A. Alden of the superior court and Justices Daniel W. Bond, William B. Stevens, Charles U. Bell, Edward P. Pierce, Jabez Fox, Charles A. DeCoursey, William C. Wall, William Schofield, Lloyd E. Waite, John C. Crosby, William F. Dana, Loranus E. Hitchcock, John F. Brown, George A. Sanderson, Robert F. Raymond and Marcus Morton, all of the superior court.

The city of Newton was represented by Mayor Hutchinson; Thomas Weston, Jr., president of the board of aldermen; and Col. Isaac F. Kingsbury, city clerk. There were also present three former presidents of the senate, Albert E. Pillsbury, George A. Bruce and George U. Crocker.

The ushers at the church were William H. Rice, Burron P. Gray, Charles F. Kelsey, Dr. George L. West, Henry H. Kendall, William A. McDevitt and Francis H. Walk, all of whom were intimate friends of Judge Bishop. The honorary bearers were Chief Justice John A. Alden and Justice James P. Richardson of the superior court, Justice Henry K. Brayley and Justice John W. Hammond of the supreme court, Pres. William E. Huntington of Boston university, John Lowell of Chestnut Hill, George B. Knapp of Auburndale and Samuel Ward of Newton Centre.

The body was taken to Newton cemetery for burial in the family lot.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The Democratic convention of the 1st Middlesex senatorial district was held Monday night in Eaton hall. John W. Brennan of Natick was elected member of the state committee. No candidate for the senate was nominated, a committee consisting of T. J. Gallagher of Watertown, William F. Holbrook of Framingham and Daniel O'Connell of Newton being chosen to select a candidate to oppose Senator Mulligan.

Board of Aldermen

New Work For Forestry Department.

A large amount of business was transacted at the meeting of the aldermen last Monday evening. Possibly the most important matter was the recommendation of the mayor that the Forestry department be furnished funds and authority to do work of all kinds upon private estates. This matter was referred. The mayor also asked for $5000 additional to complete the grading about the Technical high school by the construction of a retaining wall and a bridge to reach the entrance on the south side of the building. A request for $5000 additional to complete the present extension of the water supply was authorized.

Hearings were held on many matters. The Edison Co. asked for 3 poles on Homer street, where the removal of the street railway poles deprived their wires of support. This matter was explained by Mr. Howard for the company and the hearing closed. Later in the evening it was reopened and Mr. John P. Tenney for the first church was heard in opposition, while Alderman Gray also protested. The petition of C. A. Person to enlarge his oil establishment on Winchester street by installing 3 tanks of 6000 gallons capacity each, brought out strong opposition from Mr. C. B. Lentell, who stated that he had $25,000 worth of property in that neighborhood and that the present business was a nuisance to him. This hearing was also reopened later in the evening and Mr. Person heard in his own behalf. He stated that he wished the larger tanks buried under ground, with pipe connections with the railroad siding across the street, and said that three hours would be sufficient to unload a car of oil. He thought the improvement contemplated would cost him about $800. Mr. Lentell entered another protest against the siding proposition, saying that this would bring the oil cars within 60 feet of his property. Mr. Swift also spoke in remonstrance.

Hearings on petition of B. S. Palmer to keep gasoline on Prince street, of Abdon Lefevre to locate a 6 H. P. steam engine and to keep gasoline on Hawthorne street were unopposed and were subsequently granted. The petition of the Telephone Co. to locate a pole on St. James street and the order laying out of Loring street were also unopposed.

On the venire of 4 jurors for the Supreme Court, Alderman Holmes drew the names of Willis G. Parmelee, Bowditch road, George F. Huntress, Summer street, Charles W. Levi, Elgin street and John Hargadon, Derby street.

Communications were received from Governor Draper announcing the opening of the Tubercular sanatorium at North Reading, from the Railroad Commission approving consolidation of the Middlesex and Boston and the Newton and Boston Street Railway Companies, from the Board of Health asking for sewer in Chestnut street, from the Democratic city committee that it would participate in the city primaries, from the New Haven Railroad relative to railroad poles, and from the Edison Co. accepting orders of the board of aldermen relative to locations.

Petitions of Mrs. R. M. Turner for common victualer license, Oak street, of W. T. Price for common victualer license, Centre street and of W. J. McDonald for wagon license were granted. Petitions were received from Mrs. Violet Davis for transfer of intelligence office license to Winchester street, of L. Greenspan for transfer of junk license, of W. Q. Gulliver for transfer of pool room to Newtonville, of L. B. Cazalla for a common victualer license, of J. E. Anderson and of J. F. Phillips to conduct dancing parties in Lincoln hall, and of Ann F. Ritchie for change of line of Prospect street. Hearings on Sept. 25 were ordered on petitions of the Telephone Co. for attachments on Langley road and Summer street, the Western Union Co. for attachments on Washington street and of the Edison Co. for underground conduits on Boylston street.

Hearings on Nov. 8 were ordered on petitions to keep gasoline of Newton Garage, Brook street, H. P. Baldwin, Chestnut Hill, F. R. Stubbs, Maple avenue and C. M. Boyd, Washington street.

On recommendations of committees, the Telephone Co. was granted pole locations on Mill street, Warren street, Eldy street, attachments on Emerson street, Fairfax street, Fuller street and Temple street, the Edison Co. was granted pole locations on Melrose street and Hillside avenue, the liquor transportation permit of Nicholas Vedueco was revoked, the name of Hillsboro terrace was changed to Devon terrace, a proposed ordinance relative to gas heaters was refused passage, water mains were ordered in Neshobe road and Upham street, $2000 additional granted the Charity department, and street sprinkling assessments made on Fuller street and Commonwealth avenue. An order was also adopted calling the city primaries for Nov. 23 and a proposed consolidation of the committees on Claims and Rules was laid over.

The request of the Newton Police Benevolent Association for acceptance of statute relative to police pensions was referred to the Finance committee, after Alderman Lyons' motion to refer to the Rules committee had been defeated.

YOU CAN ORDER your COAL by TELEPHONE?

A WAG has said, that married men are divided into two classes,—those who put in all their coal at once and those who buy a ton at a time.

It doesn't make any difference which class YOU belong to, the TELEPHONE is your purchasing agent. It saves you delays, steps and trouble and meets any emergency that can arise.

To the COAL DEALER, the telephone is indispensable. It keeps him in constant touch with both ends of the track,—the sources of supply and of demand,—for the Bell Long Distance lines cover the country.

THEATRES

Tremont Theatre—"The Candy Shop" is rapidly nearing the end of its extraordinarily successful engagement at the Tremont Theatre. From the opening night all of Boston has rung with its praises, and all records for musical comedy attendance at this popular theatre have been surpassed by this newest and in many ways biggest of Charles Dillingham's musical gaiety hits to reach the Hub. Seldom has so much genuine fun been crowded into two brief acts, and seldom has such a costly cast been assembled by any theatrical manager to make this fun. William Rock and Maude Fulton and Frank Lalor head the list, which comprises such familiar names as these as well: Lucy Weston, Louis Harrison, a comedian of unctious and originality and Mrs. Annie Yeamans, who at the age of 73, brings marvelous sprightliness to the role of a musical comedy suffragette. The two acts, typical of a swell confectionery shop and a Coney Island summer amusement park, are lavishly mounted, the latter forming one of the most brilliant electrical pictures ever put on the stage. The song hits of "The Candy Shop" are many, with "Just We Two," "Goody Goody Oo," "Via Wireless," "The Whiteash Man," and "Oh, You Candy Kid," leading the list. But it's fun, first and always, in "The Candy Shop."

Park Theatre—In a recent editorial on "The Gentleman from Mississippi," the Boston American says in part: "Readers interested in American government and fond of a good exciting play, are advised to see 'A Gentleman from Mississippi' now running at the Park Theatre. This play that we recommend is a truthful picture of government at Washington. Langdon, the honest junior Senator from Mississippi, delights the crowds that go to 'A Gentleman from Mississippi' for he reminds them that, after all, there are honest men in the world—even in politics. Thomas Wise, who plays 'the part' of Langdon, gives a most admirable impersonation. He is actually the individual that he represents. The same may be said of Douglas Fairbanks, who plays the part of the breezy, young newspaper correspondent. This play, 'A Gentleman from Mississippi' should be praised for the same reasons. It is an amusing play, full of laughter and sentiment from beginning to end, but it is, above all, an instructive play. It emphasizes the power of truth and honesty. It makes the big audiences think. It is not like so many unworthy plays that merely amuse, and, too often, actually appeal to base emotions. This power of a good play, a stage with purpose, conscientious actors and managers cannot possibly be exaggerated. The play is seen and heard. Men and women gather together, and association increases the strength of their emotions. The reading of a book is an isolated process and impresses the average mind much less vividly than the exciting presentation of a play, with music, lights, motion, live people, thought emphatically, artistically and vividly expressed."

Boston Theatre—At the Boston Theatre, Jos. M. Gaites' musical comedy production, "Three Twins" has scored the biggest kind of a hit, and at every performance, capacity audiences are seen. The secret of "Three Twins" success lies in the excellent comedy that the author has put into his story and in the superb cast, headed by Clifton Crawford and Bessie McCoy, which participates in the service of good things. Mr. Crawford, who is the leader in the funmaking, appears on the stage within a moment after the opening chorus and immediately puts the audience in a hilarious mood. From then until the finale of the last act there is no let up in the smart pace set for the comedy, song and dance. While, during every moment of the dialogue, the laughter is incessant, the musical specialty features have not been neglected. The chorus is made up of very pretty girls and there are lots of them. The performances of the evening begin promptly at eight o'clock, in order to permit out-of-town patrons to make their train connections and the matinees of Wednesday and Saturday begin at two o'clock.

American Music Hall—Next week the world's premier ventriloquist, Arthur Prince will make his first appearance in the Hub for several seasons. With his life-like dummy "Jim" he furnishes enough amusement to satisfy the most critical. Hand and foot artists are always surrounded with more or less mysticism and this is particularly true of Hardeen the king of hand cuffs who is another feature of the strong bill next week. That dainty former star of the Pollard Opera Company, Daphne Pollard will be an attractive feature on the bill. As an animal act Lafayette's dogs is the greatest act of its kind on the stage. These dogs are marvels of canine intelligence and do about everything a man does except talk. Besnah & Miller, whirl wind singers and dancers, Foster & Foster presenting the "Volunteer Pianist" and four other big acts will complete the bill.

Kelth's Theatre—Once in a generation the name of an actor becomes identified with a play and both are synonymous of success. One of the biggest money makers of recent years was "Brewster's Millions" which was produced by Frederick Thompson of Luna Park fame with Edward Abeles in the principal role. Mr. Abeles certainly sprang into prominence and attained a wide popularity as a comedian in the cities where "Brewster's Millions" was shown but he was ambitious for other work and in vaudeville has found that ambition realized. He is probably the highest paid actor from the legitimate stage in vaudeville today and he has a play that in its way is a meritorious as "Brewster's Millions." It is called "Self Defense" and Mr. Abeles takes the part of a deaf mute who has been charged with a crime and the entire piece is full of strong situations. Mr. Abeles will appear at Kelth's next week sharing honors with that feature that has been attracting such wide attention.

Annette Kellermann, in her exhibition of diving and diabolism. Another new feature will be Kolmar & Brown, one of the most novel and artistic dancing acts that has been shown in recent years, the work being done amid beautiful surroundings, while both Mr. Kellermann and Miss Brown are original and graceful dancers. Other features of this bill will be the Four Lukens; Ray L. Royce, the monologist; Jones & Deely in a black face sketch; Barnes & Crawford, the "Fakir and the lady"; Gavin, Platt & Peaches in a sketch; and Palfrey & Barton.

Castle Square Theatre—"The Circus Girl" goes merrily on at the Castle Square for a third week beginning Monday. It seems as if the Boston public, and the theatre-goers for a hundred miles around, would never get enough of the musical comedy as it is played and sung by the John Craig Stock Company, and it is their persistent wishes that Mr. Craig is meeting in making the present revival. "The Circus Girl" is a compound and a medley of music, humor and dancing, of spectacular stage settings and brilliant costumes, and it contains enough variety in its two acts to fill an afternoon or evening full of the liveliest entertainment. The coming week will be the twelfth week of "The Circus Girl" within less than a year, and it is sufficient evidence of its popularity, especially as the audiences are large at every performance.

ALL BARGAIN DAYS.

Crowds at the Great Food Fair Crowds at the Great Food Fair From Various New England Points.

Every day is a bargain day at the World's Greatest Food Fair and Home Furnishing Exposition in Mechanics Building, Boston, from the moment one enters the great building. If a lady, she is presented a handsome souvenir. Then as one continues along the corridors lined on both sides with magnificent exhibits made by more than 400 exhibitors, one can keep busily employed sampling various articles of cookery or of things which go into this art and are considered essential nowadays to please the palates of even the ordinary individual, not to mention the epicure. All of these displays and those which make for the beauty and the comfort of the home are most artistically arranged and adorned. Then, it must not be forgotten that all of the great and numerous entertainments at this fair are free. In Grand Hall are given twice every day the splendid concerts by Vessella's great band of 50 Italian musicians. In the basement, arranged like a great tent, is given several times daily J. W. Gorman's old time circus with a fine program of arena acts and clowning by experts.

In their respective lines of work. In Paul Revere Hall students from Booker T. Washington's Institute at Tuskegee, Ala., give concerts singing the folklore songs of the negro for the past two centuries. The Fair is open from 10 o'clock in the morning until 10 o'clock at night.

CRAP SHOOTERS FINED.

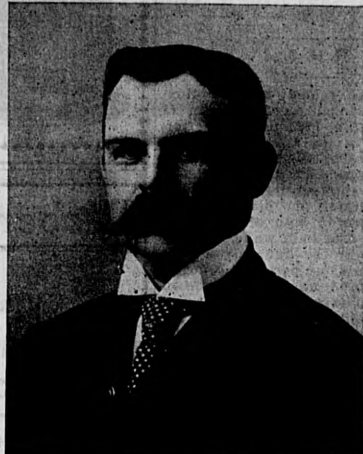

Five young men living in the Nonantum district were convicted in court Wednesday of taking part in a "crap" game on the Lord's day, each being fined $5. Two paid and the others had their cases continued for payment. Patrolman Condren testified that he broke up a game off Chapel street shortly before noon last Sunday in which about a score of young men had taken part. Oliver Twist, aged 21; Michael Farina, 19; Abraham Landry, 19, and Michael Farrell, 18, pleaded guilty. George LaPine, 20, whom he policeman declared was running the "bank" for the game, entered a plea of not guilty, declaring that he had remained at home until 12.30 because he was not feeling well that day. Twice Judge Kennedy gave the four other defendants an opportunity of testifying as to whether LaPine was in the game, but each time none volunteered to make a statement. LaPine was then found guilty and fined.

IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION.

The first regular meeting of the Nonantum Improvement Association was held in the office of Mr. Wm. Thomas' undertaking rooms on Tuesday evening last.

Mr. Simon Morrell, a prominent member of the association, suggested that Faxon street be somewhat graded and repaired so that the city might accept it as a public highway. He also suggested that a street be cut between Dalby and Faxon streets for the convenience of the public at large. In these he asked the assistance of the members of the body.

Alderman Wm. J. Doherty suggested that since the hall of the Stearns school has been equipped with lights, that the following meetings of the association be held in said place, providing the members of the school committee would consent.

LASELL SEMINARY NOTES.

On Saturday the students at Clark Cottage, accompanied by Miss Warner, spent the afternoon on the river and picnicked later on the shore.

Instead of holding the regular Sunday vesper service, the students went to hear Rev. Francis E. Clark address the Christian Endeavor Society of the Congregational church.

Monday afternoon an enthusiastic party returned from the White Mountain trip, on which they started Friday. Their headquarters were at the Bellevue House, at Intervale, from which place they made various interesting expeditions.

ALDERMANIC OUTING.

The annual outing of the board of aldermen as guests of the mayor took place last Saturday, with twenty aldermen, Mayor Hutchinson and several city officials present. The party left City Hall about half past eight in several automobiles. The proposed playground on Elm and Webster streets was viewed and the first stop made at the new Technical high school at Newtonville, where the new building was looked over in charge of Supt. Spaulding. The manual training school in the Jackson building at Nonantum attracted considerable attention. The board of aldermen changes making it possible to greatly increase the number of pupils. At the Nonantum playground the possibility of a new bridge across the Charles river to West Watertown was discussed and a long ride following the banks of the river thru Waltham, Auburndale, Lower Falls and Upper Falls brought the party to the new playground at Upper Falls. The next point visited was the work in Needham of extending the present water supply and an inspection of the Newton Centre playground ended the sight seeing. Lunch at the Brae Burn Country Club was followed by a long discussion of the work and needs of the city.

N. H. S.

Newton high school defeated Roxbury Latin school football team, 11 to 7, on Clifton field Monday afternoon in one of the closest and most exciting games of the fall.

Newton outwheeled Roxbury Latin a little but the visiting team gave a fine exhibition of playing. The home team scored both of its touchdowns in the first half, while Roxbury Latin went over the line only a minute before the same period ended.

Newton scored its first touchdown after two minutes of play. Taylor punted to Collins, the Roxbury fullback, and the latter fumbled. Gallagher, the Newton captain, recovered the ball and ran half the length of the field for the touchdown. Barber kicked the goal.

Newton's second touchdown came mostly as a result of forward pass. Barber, the quarterback, made several fine passes to his ends, and they gained considerable ground on them.

Roxbury Latin came back strong during the latter part of the first half, and just before time was called Capt. O'Brien went over for a touchdown. Taking everything into consideration, the visiting team played splendidly against the husky Newton eleven, and it is likely to give the Volkmann and Noble & Greenough eleven a surprise when they meet.

Lester Jones, who did the punting for Roxbury, got off a long spiral, and Clancy of Newton was forced over the goal line, giving Roxbury Latin a safety.

Captain Gallagher injured his shoulder, Clancy, substitute quarter, hurt his knee, Taylor, guard, was injured about the back and neck, while Vinal and Marshall were badly battered up.

Newton will lose the services of Vinal and Cannon in the Preparatory League games this year on account of the post graduate rule.

In the trials for the Newton high school golf team which were held Wednesday and Thursday of this week at the links of the Albenarle Golf Club, fifteen participated. The five who made the lowest scores in the 36 holes medal play, and who will compose the team are: Tewksbury, Mulaney, Manning, Rice and Pray. The team has its first match next Monday when it plays the Fessenden school of Newtonville.

—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hyslop have sold their house on Baldwin street to Mr. Joseph Pearson of Charlesbank road and have taken an apartment in Vernon court.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Lord and Miss Marion Lord of Claremont street enjoyed a motor trip to Pittsfield and other points in Western Massachusetts this week.

—Mr. Martin C. Laffie of Carleton street has returned from a month's trip to California and the Seattle-Yukon exposition, where he went with a party of Odd Fellows.

—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Moll have rented and moved into the Priest house on Vernon street for the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gravatt are their guests for the present.

—Rev. Dr. George S. Butters of Veeley street has been giving a course of lectures this week before the students at the School of Theology connected with Boston university.

—Rev. Dr. C. H. Patton of Franklin street, Rev. H. Grant Person of Bellevue street and Mr. Franklin W. Gause of Waban park are in Minneapolis this week attending the annual meeting of the American Board.

—Mr. William M. Pax on of Elmwood street is at work on two portraits of the late ex-president Grover Cleveland, one intended for Princeton university, the other, of a different style and characterization, for Mrs. Cleveland. Mr. Paxton is also painting portraits of Mrs. C. F. Ayer of Boston and Mrs. W. T. Hyde of New York.

—The carelessness of a man who was enjoying an after breakfast smoke in a little of the dwelling caused a brick fire Sunday forenoon in the house at 28 Jefferson street, occupied by S. A. Campbell and family and owned by F. O. Stanley. The flames spread quickly through the upper part of the frame structure and broke out through the roof. Neighbors became frightened and sent in an alarm from box 15. The firemen found the blaze a hard one to fight, but after nearly an hour's work succeeded in extinguishing the fire with a loss of less than $500. Shortly after noon the fire started again on the roof, and in response to a still alarm the firemen from the Nantuxum square station went to the house again.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

In the death of the late Hon. Gorham D. Gilman the Association loses one of its best friends. He was the second President of the Association, and held the office from 1878 to 1881. From that date until his death he was a loyal friend and supporter to the Association. He was greatly interested in the building movement, and on the thirtieth anniversary of the Association gave $100 for the corner stone of the new building, and at the last annual meeting in May he made a second gift to put on the saddle boards of the new building, thus having a part in the foundation and completion of the building. A set of resolutions have been drawn up by the officers of the Association and placed on the permanent records.

Theodore R. Lockwood will be the speaker Sunday afternoon at 3.15. Mr. Lockwood has recently returned from a several months' trip in Spain, and will have some reminiscences to give at that time.

Mr. Walter Gilliam of Washington, D. C., will take up his duties with the Association, October 15th. Mr. Gilliam will have charge of the boys' work of the Association.

Dr. Lyman B. Sperry of Oberlin, Ohio, will deliver two lectures at the Association rooms to men on October 20th, and 21st. Dr. Sperry is one of the greatest speakers to men in the country, and many will take advantage of this opportunity to hear him. On Friday night, the 22nd, Dr. Sperry will speak at a union service in Eliot Chapel.

The gymnasium classes are now running on their winter schedule. Two interesting features will characterize the junior classes. In the class for boys, ten to twelve years, a group contest will be held. The classes will be divided into four teams. The team winning the most points will be presented with a shield having on it the names of the victors and placed in the gymnasium. In the class for boys, twelve to fourteen years, a personal efficiency test will be held at the end of the season. Each boy making five hundred points out of a possible seven hundred, will be presented with a certificate having on it records made during the season.

The basketball team surprised every one by making the strong Brockton Y. M. C. A. team go an extra period in order to defeat them 12 to 10. The game was played out doors last Friday at the Brockton Fair. The first and second team should be on the floor Monday and Wednesday of each week. The first team schedule will start Nov. 17th.

Fourteen degrees below zero is an occasional visitor in our midst. When it comes, you need an apparatus which is equal to the occasion. Cold weather has no terrors for a "WINCHESTER" steam or hot water heater. Reliable yet economical. Smith & Thayer Co., 236 Congress street, Boston, Mass.

AUTO OWNERS URGED TO COMPLY WITH LAW.

Careful investigation during nearly two and a half years has convinced the members of the Executive Committee of the Safe Roads Automobile Association that a large number of automobile accidents are due directly to failure on the part of operators approaching "blind" corners and curves, especially in the country where the average speed is higher than in cities and towns, to sound a warning signal, as is now required by acts of 1909, chap. 534, section 14. Upon approaching an intersecting way or a curve or corner in a way where the operator's view is obstructed, every person operating a motor vehicle shall slow down and give a timely signal with his bell, horn or other device for signalling.

Many skillful operators do not signal, in the misguided belief that it is an admission of want of skill on their part, while in fact it is merely an evidence of careful and decent driving.

The Safe Roads Association earnestly requests all automobile owners to carefully comply with this most reasonable law.

CITY HALL.

The statistics of the board of health for the past month show a death rate of 9.24 against one of 12.25 for the corresponding period last year, there having been 30 deaths in this city in September against 39 in the same month last year. There were on Oct. 1 one case of diphtheria, against none last month; 13 cases of scarlet fever, an increase of six over the previous month; two of typhoid, an increase of one, and none of measles, against two the previous month. There were 48 rooms disinfected last month.

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC.

VOL. XXXVIII.—NO. 5.

NEWTON, MASS., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1909.

TERMS, $2.00 A YEAR.

THE AUTO MAIL

The following account of the detail followed in the collection of mail in this city by automobile may be of interest.

On the noon-day collection, so-called, a White car, carrying a chauffeur and one clerk, starts from the corner of Chestnut and Fuller streets, Waban, at 9.30 A. M. The car is fitted with a case containing nine compartments, one for each Newton postoffice, and the collector assort the mail as he takes it from the boxes. Ten minutes or so from the time of starting he reaches Newton Lower Falls—having collected six boxes on the way—and any Waban mail addressed to the place is left at that post office. Before ten o'clock he is at Auburndale, in season to forward by train all mail that may be addressed to Boston or beyond. From Auburndale he goes to West Newton. He is due in Newton Highlands at 10.42, in Newton Centre at 11, in Newtonville at 11.25, and in Newton at 11.50. The morning round is finished at 12.30. From the boxes he visited last the collector has probably taken mail addressed to post-offices at which he has already called. He cannot double on his tracks in order to leave it, but arranges to connect with a circuit train which practically retraces his route, though in the opposite direction, from finish to start, and by this means he despatches mail for Waban, for instance, which he took up in Newtonville two hours after Waban had been left behind.

This noon-day collection made in three hours, covers about thirty-five miles of streets. An evening collection, which takes up fewer boxes, starts in West Newton at 7 P. M., goes over a route some twenty-two miles long, and ends in Newton at 9.30 P. M. Finally comes the midnight collection, when the car running out from Boston makes a wide sweep of sixty-five miles, gathers the contents of some 200 letter-boxes, and returns to the city to unload at the Back Bay post office, shortly before 3 A. M. Not only does this collection take up substantially everything in the Newtons, but, by a recent enlargement of its scope, it has been clearing the boxes in the Chestnut Hill section as well, a convenience which seems to be greatly appreciated.

These automobile collections not only expedite the service, but save labor. On the morning collection one man does the work that would otherwise call for six men. On the evening and midnight collections one man takes the place of five. To one unaccustomed to the work, it would seem almost impossible for the one man to collect the boxes and sort the mail, keeping up with all the time schedules; but as a matter of fact it is said that to an expert the task presents few difficulties.

Y. M. C. A.

The Waitt Trophy is now on exhibition at the Association rooms. This is the second cup presented by Mr. A. H. Waitt for the all-round championship in athletics. Any member of the physical department of the Association, in good standing, is eligible to compete for the cup provided he represents the Newton Y. M. C. A. in outside contests. This is the only condition made by the donor of the cup. The cup must be won three years in order to become the permanent property of any contestant.

A committee of representative men met Wednesday to draw the list of events, and to arrange for the scoring of points. This report will be published later.

The Trophy is a beautiful solid silver cup valued at $100, and ought to stimulate all-round development in athletics and gymnastics among members of the Association.

The meeting for the younger boys will be held at three o'clock Sunday afternoon. Seth Wood will be the leader of the meeting, and Mr. Gilliam, the boys' secretary, will speak. The meeting for young men will be held at 3.15. The speaker will be announced on the bulletin boards.

On Tuesday evening a reception was given to Mr. Walter Gilliam, the new boys' work secretary. Those in charge of the program were Mr. Carlton Ellison, E. O. Childs, Jr., Seth Wood and H. W. Bascom. The social committee of the Ladies' Auxiliary headed by Mrs. Ganse served refreshments. The program consisted of musical selections, illustrated songs and camp pictures. Mr. Gilliam was introduced by Mr. Ellison in a very neat speech. He received a warm welcome, and after thanking the members of the boys' department for their cordial reception, outlined a few things he intends to carry out with their help during the coming months. Among these are the organization of a glee club, and a Cook-Peary membership contest. In this contest the team which first brings in twenty-five new members discovers the North Pole, and finds a banquet hidden underneath. About 150 members of the boys' department were present.

Circulars telling of the new building campaign, and showing tentative plans for the building, have been sent out to many of the citizens of Newton. Such a building as suggested by these plans, would provide a permanent home for the Association and greatly enlarge its work. The boys and young men of the entire city deserve a modern building. When the time comes it is hoped that there will be a generous response.

SPLENDID GIFT

The Rice homestead, one of the landmarks of Newton Lower Falls, is to be presented to the city of Newton to be used as a tuberculosis ward of the Newton hospital.

It is to be given by Thomas Varick and Richard Varick, brothers, of Manchester, N. H.

The estate includes a three story mansion and a smaller dwelling and stables, situated on a lot comprising 4½ acres. A part of the land includes a high plateau in the rear of the residences, where it is expected that a bungalow will be built for patients. One of the houses on the property was the birthplace of the late Alexander Hamilton Rice, former governor of Massachusetts.

The estate will be given with the understanding that it will not only be a memorial to Thomas Rice, Jr., a paper manufacturer at Lower Falls for many years and chairman of the selectmen when Newton was a town, but that it shall also be a memorial to Rebekah R. Rice, his wife; Jane Isabella Rice Varick, mother of the donors; Frederick W. Rice, formerly president of Carter, Rice & Co. of Boston; Edward T. Rice and Martha C. Rice, wife of the latter.

The donors of the property are grand nephews of the late Ex-Gov. Rice, who was born in the smaller dwelling on the estate and lived there practically all his life.

The property had been held in trust some years. It came into possession of the Varick brothers after the death in France last March of Mrs. Martha C. Rice. The donors are sons of the late John B. Varick of Manchester, who was one of the pioneer paper manufacturers of that city. Both are now well known business men in that place.

The matter of providing suitable quarters for tuberculosis patients by Newton hospital was taken up some time ago by the hospital officials and by the Newton federation of women's clubs with the result that temporary quarters were provided on the hospital property off Washington street, less than a mile from the Rice homestead.

A MISTAKEN IDEA.

Many people have gained the impression that only the very wealthy can afford to sit for the beautiful photographs made at the studio of Morris Burke Parkinson, 603 Boylston street (Copley square), Boston. This is a mistake which can be corrected by calling or sending for price list.

Prices, considering the quality of work, will be found very reasonable. Now is the time to sit for Christmas Portraits. Visitors for inspection are always welcome whether they desire sittings or not.

MR. GILMAN HONORED

At a meeting of the Massachusetts State Board of Trade held Tuesday, October 12, 1909, the following memorial and vote were unanimously adopted:

Gorham D. Gilman represented the Boston Druggists' Association in the executive Council of the Massachusetts State Board of Trade from the beginning of the Board. For nearly twenty years he contributed to it directly from a wealth of experience and sagacity that made his influence and aid inestimable. Upon the foundation of a wide knowledge of the world obtained by travel and residence in remote lands, he built the life of a prosperous merchant and a public-spirited citizen. His associates in business found him one who commanded their respect and dignified their calling. The confidence he won from his neighbors led to their entrusting him with obligations of public office which he met with credit and honor. He furnished a striking instance of the usefulness of those rare men who maintain to the end of a long life their interest in their fellows and who to the last labor for the common good. To those who worked with him in this organization he was more than a successful man of affairs, a high-minded citizen, or a wise and venerable counselor, for to us he was a gracious, kindly, warm-hearted friend. His genial bearing, his cordial words, his every ready sympathy, made his presence always a delight and will make his absence a grief tempered only by remembrance of our fortune in having known him. As men we mourn the loss of a friend. As an organization we recognize the loss of one who through his channel and in many other ways had been of great service to the community. For these reasons it is—

VOTED, That we make formal recognition of the loss the Massachusetts State Board of Trade has suffered in the death of Gorham D. Gilman, by spreading on its records this expression of our appreciation of his service to the Board; and that a copy hereof be sent to his family.

LINCOLN vs. UNION.

On Saturday next the Union A. C. and the Lincoln A. A. Juniors, both strong local teams, meet for their third annual football game on the Cabot park grounds. It is expected to be one of the best games of the season. Although the Unions greatly outweigh their opponents, the Lincolns are expected to put up a real "fast" game.

The Evening Drawing School will be held this year at the New Technical High school on Tuesday and Thursday evenings at the same hours as the English classes.

N. H. S.

The football team played the strong Boston Latin team to a tie, last Tuesday afternoon on Clavin field, the score being 5 to 5. In one of the best games they have played.

Newton got the jump on Boston Latin shortly after the first half opened, when Hopkins, his big center rush, gathered up the ball on a fumble on Latin school's 15-yard line, and straightaway carried it over for Newton's only score. Barber missed his try for the goal, the ball hitting one of the uprights.

Boston Latin immediately put more life into its play, and Newton was kept on defensive during the remainder of the first half, B. L. S. scoring before the half ended.

By steady line-plunging and outside tackle plays B. L. S. worked the ball down toward Newton's goal lines, but the heavy B. L. S. line was too strong, and at last, with the ball on the 12-yard line, Sam Temple, Latin school's right half back, carried it over on an outside tackle play for the touchdown. Pendergast had an easy goal to kick, but the ball struck the post, almost exactly where Barber's did.

In the backfield, Allen, who was playing right half back, went to full-back, where his work improved. Time and again he plunged through the heavy Latin school line for gains of from 10 to 15 yards. He also played a great defensive game. Osborne was at right half back, and he carried the ball well, while Ryder at left half-back put plenty of dash into his work, as did Barber at quarterback.

Capt. Gallagher played his usual fine all-around game at right end, which the Latin school half backs found difficult to get around Marshall, the home team's tackle, also was conspicuous.

85 YEARS YOUNG

City Messenger Wellington Observes Birthday.

City Messenger Joseph D. Wellington quietly observed his eighty-fifth birthday last Friday. On account of the serious illness of Mrs. Wellington no special celebration was attempted, but "Uncle Joe" received the hearty congratulations from his many friends on his well preserved physical and mental health at such an unusual event.

Mr. Wellington was born at Troy, N. Y., removing to Cambridge when a young man. Later he settled in West Newton and in 1877 received the appointment of City Messenger under the administration of Mayor Fowler. With the exception of the venerable City Auditor, Mr. Wellington is the oldest official in the employ of the city, holding the same office to which he was appointed.

NEWTON AT THE POLLS.

While there is no question about the attitude of the city of Newton on the liquor license question, a study of the elections for the past ten years is of interest. In the 149 precinct returns, license has been voted 29 times.

The vote in favor of license has never but once exceeded half the registration, reaching 55 per cent. in precinct 1 of ward 1 in 1899, which precinct was down to 43 per cent. last year. The smallest vote for license was in precinct 3 of ward 6, with only 1 per cent., in 1908. The "No" vote has exceeded half the registration 23 times, reaching a maximum of 70 per cent. in precinct 2 of ward 3 in 1901. There has been a vote for license of less than ten per cent. 54 times, and a similar "No" vote but once.

In the ten years license has prevailed once in precinct 1 of ward 3, seven times in precinct 1 of ward 5, and nine times each in precincts 1 of ward 1 and 2 of ward 4. Is there any reason why these sections should so differ from the rest of the city?

LASELL SEMINARY.

The third lecture by Mr. Leon H. Vincent at Lasell seminary will be given on Thursday evening, October 28th, at 7.45 o'clock. Subject: Thoreau and His Wooden Ink Stand. The public is cordially invited to attend.

was mostly on his outside of tackle runs that his team succeeded in getting the ball over the goal line for its touchdown. Sam Temple put up a snappy game at right half back and held his feet splendidly.

JEWETT—BARNARD.

One of the prettiest weddings of the fall season was that of Miss Georgianna Lottie Barnard, the daughter of Mr. Samuel O. Barnard, of Watertown, and Mr. Alfred Foster Jewett of Newton, at the First Parish church, Watertown, on Tuesday evening. The church was decorated with palms, ferns and pink chrysanthemums, and was well filled with friends of the young couple. While the guests were gathering, Mrs. Alma Davidson, the organist, played an enjoyable program, which changed to the Bridal Chorus from the Lohengrin at the approach of the bride party. One of the prettiest features of the evening was the appearance of six little girls, pupils of the bride at the Hosmer school, Watertown, at the pulpit, and their marching down the aisle aisles of the church to meet the remainder of the party at the main door. The bride was escorted to the chancel by her father and was accompanied by Miss Helen E. Green of Watertown as maid of honor. The bride wore the conventional gown of white satin, trimmed with pearls from her mother's wedding dress. The veil was attached to an imported coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. The maid of honor was gowned in pink, and wore a short veil attached to a laurel wreath in French fashion. She carried pink pinks. The little bridesmaids, Isabel Barnard, sister of the bride, Margaret Horne, Marjorie Thurber, Rosa Crane, Doris Hadley, and Marion Kalousdian were dressed in white, with pink wreaths and carrying pink pinks. Rev. Grover G. Mills, pastor of the church, officiated and the double ring service was used. Mr. Joseph J. Jewett of Newton, brother of the groom, was the best man, and the ushers were Messrs. Harry F. Gould, Royal D. Evans, Fay McLaughlin of Watertown and Mark Bacheider of Cambridge.

A small reception followed at the Barnard residence on Patten street, limited to the immediate relatives and the bride party.

Mr. and Mrs. Jewett, after a short wedding trip will reside on Falmouth street, Belmont, where they will be at home after January first.

Nonantum.

Mr. John Butler, who for nearly forty years has had charge of the wool sorting at the Aetna Mills, has been appointed day watchman at the mills. A small building has been erected near the lower gate on Bridge street. Mr. Butler has taken up his work and has charge of the lower gate, and no one can enter or leave the mills without the proper credentials.

The Lincoln A. A. in their game last Saturday at Cabot park against the Wellington A. C. of South Boston, defeated them by a score of 5-0. The features of the game were the clever playing of M. Cavanagh, half back, and Butler, left guard. Butler was knocked out three times, the last time his place was filled by a substitute. T. Delaney, another clever player, made the only touch down, getting the ball on the Wellington's fumble.

A grocery team owned by Charles Moran of Natick, while standing in front of the new block on Watertown street last Monday afternoon, was frightened by an auto. The horse took to his heels and started off towards Watertown, but as there was a crowd of children crossing the street in front of Kilburn's drug store, it turned down Faxon street, striking the front wheel against a large elm tree and bringing it to a halt. The wheel was smashed and the orders scattered over the street.

Mr. Charles Frechette has been taken to the Newton hospital with an attack of pneumonia.

VAHEY—WALLACE.

Miss Elizabeth Agatha Vahey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael A. Vahey, was married last Monday morning to William Patrick Wallace of Newtonville at St. Patrick's church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Ambrose F. Roche at nine o'clock. Father Roche read the nuptial mass and at the conclusion delivered an eloquent sermon on the Sacrament of Matrimony to the young couple. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents on Irving street.

The bride is one of the great favorites in the younger social set. She is the president of the Autumn Club and a teacher in St. Patrick's Sunday school. She wore a pretty dress of white messaline silk with shadow embroidery with veil and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. She was attended by her intimate friend, Miss Mary T. Dunphy as bridesmaid. Miss Dunphy was gowned in pink muslin and wore a large picture hat with ostrich plumes. She carried bride's roses.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Wallace of Newton. He was attended by his brother, James E. Wallace, Jr.

The bride and groom were assisted in receiving by the parents of both. After the reception, the happy couple left on a tour of Washington, Atlantic City, Philadelphia and New York. (Watertown Observer.)

HIGHLAND GLEE CLUB.

The friends and supporters of the Highland Glee Club will be glad to know that they will give two concerts the coming season, first to be given about January first at Bray's hall, Newton Centre.

The membership of the club has been increased very materially and it is their intention to invite subscriptions from the residents of all parts of the city.

If the financial support warrants, it is their intention to have the assistance of a goodly number of members of Boston Symphony Orchestra at the next concert; announcement of which will be more definitely given, later.

It would seem that there is a splendid field for the kind of work which they did the past season, and it is their intention to give the people of Newton an opportunity to hear the best talent obtainable at these concerts.

The officers of the club for the ensuing year are: J. H. Turnbull, president; H. H. Cummings, vice president; W. L. Thompson, treasurer; S. Arthur Thompson, secretary; Archie Lianna, librarian; membership committee, Edwin S. Drown, Edgar J. Smith. The musical director will be the same as last year, Mr. Edgar Jacobs Smith, Newton Highlands.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Four boys recently were arrested and brought up before Judge Kennedy for robbing gardens of fruit. They received a rebuke—with a warning—to go and sin no more.

It is a sad fact that this complaint comes from all quarters, that boys utterly disregard the right and privacy of owners who have fruit upon their grounds. They enter without permission and shake the trees, or throw stones into them. If they are asked to go away they laugh in your face. When only in play, they rush upon your grounds, entering one gate and go out of another, making themselves a perfect nuisance. Old residents say there never was such a time when such lawlessness was known.

CITY HALL.

Among the unsuccessful applicants near the close of registration last week at City Hall was Lee Wah Juock, a Chinaman who conducts a laundry at 349 Watertown street, in the Nonantum district. Juock is well educated and when he went to city hall he was confident that he could pass the requirements and become the first Chinaman on Newton's voting list. He said he was born in San Francisco, therefore not requiring naturalization papers, but when he picked from the box a card bearing printed matter for him to read aloud in order to prove that he was a master of the English language Juock was unfortunate in selecting a particularly hard quotation. He made several attempts to read correctly the printed slip but finally had to give it up. He said afterward that he will try later to pass the qualifications.

LARGE CROWDS ATTEND THE BIJOU.

All roads in the amusement line lead to the Bijou since the starting of the new policy of two hours of entertainment each evening without a repeat. Full houses nightly enjoy the program which is always carefully selected to produce the best in the moving picture style of entertainment.

Pearly landing at Sydney on his return from the North Pole was presented as a special feature Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week and as the film is just released for exhibition it shows that the Bijou management are right on their job of getting the new subjects.

Hazel Mann and Jack Early, a Newton singers with a good voice received generous applause for their renderings of the song part of the program. The Heptasoph Club will attend the Bijou as a body on Friday evening, Oct. 15, on account of which Manager Barry has termed that evening Heptasoph Night.

Manager Barry says the Bijou has now gone by the experimental stage and that the large and increasing attendance nightly proves conclusively that Newton will cheerfully support and patronize a moving picture house.

It is inconceivable that any business man in this city would dream of displacing Governor Draper, whose splendid executive ability has been so advantageous to the state, with a man so little experienced in business affairs as Mr. Vahey, the candidate of the Democratic party. Yet it is possible and even more probable that our good business man may indirectly contribute to such a condition by failing to cast his vote at the coming state election. One of the chief dangers in the so called "off" years is the almost criminal neglect of the average intelligent voter to do his duty at the polls. The present election is of vital importance to this Commonwealth. Governor Draper has proven himself to be a most capable executive. Thru his efforts the state tax was cut down one million of dollars, a saving of 30 cents on the tax bill of every Newton citizen. His appointments to office have been first class in every particular. Would it be possible for Mr. Vahey, if elected governor, to bring to that office the same standard of business ability?
Would the state tax be reduced under his administration, and would it be possible for him to find in the conglomeration which composes the bulk of his support, the high quality, which has characterized the appointments of Governor Draper. I believe a little thought on these lines will induce every business man to cast his vote for the re-election of Governor Draper.

Congressman Weeks scores a good point on Candidate Foss whose possisistic views on the new tariff, as expressed on the political stump are hardly borne out by the glowing advertising prospectus issued by Manufacturer Foss to induce subscriptions to the stock of the new cotton mill to be erected at East Boston.

MOTHERS' REST.

The annual meeting of this most interesting charity was held yesterday afternoon in the parlors of the First church, Newton Centre with a large attendance. Mrs. Arthur C. Badger, the president, was in the chair and satisfactory reports were received from the officers and committees, that from Mrs. C. T. Bartlett as chairman of the Guest committee, with its story of the practical workings of the Home being particularly interesting. Other reports were made by the Finance committee, Mrs. E. R. Benton, chairman, House and Grounds committee, Mrs. H. R. Luther, chairman, Religious committee, Mrs. Henry J. Ide, chairman, Visiting committee, Mrs.
Chas. E. Kelsey, chairman, and Relief committee, Mrs. F. E. Anderson, chairman. Miss Parker, the matron and Mrs. Macauley, the nurse also made reports and one was read from Dr. S. A. Sylvester, the home physician. The membership was reported as 222 active and 83 associate, the largest in the history of the Association and more mothers and children had been accommodated during the past season than ever before.

During the afternoon Miss Marion Haskell sang several selections in a most delightful manner, and was accompanied by Mrs. H. F. Leach on the piano. At the conclusion of the meeting tea was served under the direction of Mrs. Kelsey.

UNITARIAN CLUB.

The regular meeting of the Unitarian Club was held in the parlors of Channing church last evening and was well attended by members and guests, a number of the latter being members of the board of aldermen.
An informal reception was first held and dinner was served at 6:30 in the banquet hall. Later there was a short business meeting and at 8 o'clock in the parlors Mayor George Hutchinson gave an address on "Newton's Assets." A large number of stereopticon views were thrown upon the screen and brief comments were made on each. The first pictures were of some of the old and new churches in the various Newtons, then followed the Y. M. C. A. building, the hospital buildings, Newton Home for Aged People, Pomroy Home, the Read Fund
Picnic, Newton Cemetery, Brae Burn, Newton and Hunnewell Clubs, Norum-bega Park, its theatre and the ruins
after the fire, and various views along the Charles River. After showing some views of the Allen and Fessenden schools, the Woodland Park Hotel and a tenement house neighborhood, the speaker explained how the tax was divided between the state and city. The city hall, city farm, streets and crossings, previous to and after the depression of the Boston & Albany tracks, were shown, the various railroad stations and the public schools, the high and new technical schools, with an attendance of 1200 pupils, Newton Free Library, city stables, a number of business blocks,
Echo Bridge, Crystal Lake, Pumping Station, Reservoir, Police and Fire Departments. Mayor Hutchinson stated that there were 142 miles of accepted streets placing Newton at the head of the state and a leader in the country, and described at length the work of the forestry department in preserving the trees and urged the formation of local improvement associations to take active interest in this work to co-operate in beautifying the city, developing the playgrounds for the children and to buy better equipment for the fire department. The mayor closed with words of commendation for the work of the present board of aldermen in the interest of the city and the last picture was of a group consisting of the various heads of the departments which were pointed out to the audience. Many favorable comments were made after the lecture and the mayor was congratulated on giving such a pleasant and instructive address.

Women's Clubs

Edited by Miss Grace M. Burt

The executive board of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs held its regular meeting at the New Church parlors, Newtonville, on October 18,
the president, Mrs. John H. Pillsbury, in the chair. At the close of the regular business, Mrs. Glendower Evans and Miss Davida French presented briefly and ably the subject of "Savings Bank Life Insurance."

CHAUFFEUR DISCHARGED.

After a lengthy hearing in the police court last Saturday Max Echter, 19 years old, chauffeur of the U. S.
mail automobile in use in the postal service in this city for some months, was discharged by Associate Judge
Bacon on a charge of reckless driving.

The charge was brought in consequence of an accident at Auversdale on previous Monday evening, when the automobile struck a carriage.

Harry Jordan, driver for William Usher of Wauhan, testified that he was proceeding along Woodlawn road on the right hand side with proper lights on his carriage, when the automobile suddenly struck the forward wheel and shaft, having come up from behind. He was thrown to the sidewalk, he said, and the shaft was broken and the horse cut. No horn was blown as the automobile approached,
he declared.

Miss Ruth Arend, a freshman student in Lussell seminary, was a passenger in the carriage. She testified that she was thrown off the seat by the impact. "I was frightened and walked the rest of the way to the seminary," she said. "I heard no horn
blown as the automobile approached,
although the carriage windows were open."

Edward Hatton, butler for Rev. Dr.
Peloubet, testified he saw the automobile strike the carriage, throwing the driver off the box and knocking the vehicle 15 or 20 feet. He said that the automobile was proceeding at least twice as fast as the carriage, and that the horn was not sounded
before the accident.

Nicholas A. Stoddard, a letter carrier, who was riding on the automobile, said the chauffeur sounded the horn several times, and that the machine merely touched the carriage
when the latter vehicle was unexpectedly turned to the left. He thought the automobile was going less than 10 miles an hour.

Echter, the chauffeur, testified that he sounded the horn eight or 10 times and stopped the automobile within two feet after striking the carriage.
He was making not more than eight to 10 miles an hour just previous to the collision, he declared.

"The evidence is not positive enough to convict the defendant," said Associate Judge Bacon, who ordered Echter discharged. The case attracted widespread attention in this city, for complaints had been heard in different wards that the machine used in collecting the mails had frequently been driven at a fast clip.

There was a large attendance of relatives and friends at the wedding
on Wednesday night at Elliot church, of Miss Rosalind Denny Kenway, the daughter of Mrs. Herbert P. Kenway and Mr. Warren Kendall Lewis, both of Newton. The chancel of the church was effectively decorated with palms
and pink chrysanthemums, while Mr.
Everette E. Truette, the organist, gave a delightful program while the guests assembled.

The bride, who wore a gown of embrodered crepe de chine with duchesse lace, was escorted by her brother,
Mr. Herbert P. Kenway, who gave her in marriage. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Florence L. Kenway, as maid of honor, wearing pale pink crepe de chine. There were no bridesmaids. Mr. Robert H. W. Lord of Newton was the best man. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H.
Grant Person, pastor of the church, assisted by Rev. Dr. Wolcott Calkins.

A small reception followed at the Kenway residence on Fairmont ave-

CALEB STARK CHAPTER.

Caleb Stark Chapter, Junior Sons and Daughters of the Revolution, met last Saturday at the home of the director, Miss Marion D. Tucker, 18 Copley street, Newton. This was the annual meeting, and the officers elected for the coming year were as follows: President, Ralph Moore; vice president, Clifford Green; secretary, Marion Campbell; corresponding secretary, Kenneth D. Tucker; treasurer, Gladys White; historian, Florence Barber. The business meeting was followed by an entertaining program, including a vocal solo by Kenneth Tucker, and Miss Tucker, the director,
read the "Life of John Paul Jones." Then followed a game of guessing the names of public men, from their pictures. Miss White made the highest score and took the prize. The meeting closed with the singing of "America," and a social hour followed. This is one of the most promising chapters
in the State, and is steadily growing.
The director reports already the application of six new members.

In the presence of many guests the wedding of Miss Edith Helen Curtis,

Newton, Rev. J. Edgar Park, pastor of Second Congregational church, officiating. The bride was gowned in white satin trimmed with lace and chiffon. She was attended by Mrs. F.
E. Nowers, matron of honor, whose lace. The best man was George F.

Moulton of Dorchester, while the ushers were Eardley F. Nowers, Edwin W. Nowers and Thomas H. Thomas

ed until 10 o'clock. The house was prettily decorated with clematis, laur-

MRS. GREENE MISSING.

Search is being made by relatives
for Mrs. Ella O. Greene, 68 years old, who has been missing for some weeks from the home of Mrs. H. W. Ball of 26 Walsall street, Newton Highlands, where she had made her home since the death of her husband, Aela Greene, a writer, who lived for many years in Springfield. Relatives are searching hospitals and institutions in the western part of the state, believing that Mrs. Greene may have met with accident and may be under treatment in some hospital.

Last month she left Newton Highlands to visit friends in Springfield.
Later she went to Chester, returning on Sept. 21 to spend the night with a friend in Springfield. The following day she left the Springfield house to return to Newton Highlands by electric. Since then nothing has been heard from her. Mrs. Greene has gray hair, brown eyes and weighs about 110 pounds. She is of medium height and her figure is slight.

ALL HOUSEHOLD EMERGENCIES

THE phrase "All Household Emergencies" covers everything from a fire in the attic to a leaking pipe in the kitchen, and the only way to meet all of them is BY TELEPHONE.

Remember, too, that sudden demands for "the doctor," or for special provision for the unexpected guest that has been persuaded to "come out for dinner" are included in this category.

The TELEPHONE is as necessary to the Housewife as to the Businessman. One use of it may save the price of several years of service.

If the family are scattered, the Bell Long Distance lines always keep "home" within easy reach.

Safety For Your Estate

Our method of administering estates and trust funds has not only all the advantages of an individual trusteeship, but other points of superiority that one-man direction cannot have. Sickness, accident or death cannot endanger a trust confided to us, because no one man is responsible for it. Our executive board act together, and are ready for business every business day in the year.

Every investment made, or other important action taken, represents the collective wisdom of a group of men expert in trust management, and their services cost an estate no more than it would pay an individual.

All our securities are officially inspected three times a year. We give bonds equal to twice the amount of the personal property of an estate we administer; and these bonds are backed by a guarantee of $4,500,000. An individual acting as executor or trustee rarely is required to give security.

AN ANONYMOUS NOTE

By HELEN V. TURNER.
(Copyright, 1909, by American Press Association.)

The theatrical manager received a card on which was engraved "Jules Nostand."

The manager tapped a bell. An attendant appeared and was directed to admit the visitor. The latter entered with a roll of manuscript.

"M. Nostand," said the manager, advancing effusively and taking both hands of the visitor in his, "I am delighted to see you."

"Pardon, sir; you have mistaken the name. It is Nostand, not Nostand. I am not the author of 'Cyrano de Bergerac.'"

"No; you are not, but you are a nephew of the celebrated Nostand and have come from Paris to America incognito to dispose of a play written under the guidance of your uncle."

The visitor stood looking in astonishment at the manager, then said: "May I ask how you became aware of that?"

"I was informed by an anonymous note."

"Parbleu! It was agreed between my uncle and myself that I should come over here and offer my play for what it is intrinsically worth. Unless you will give me your promise not to betray my identity my plan has failed."

"You need not go further with your work. I am ready to make you an offer for it."

"I prefer that it shall stand on its merits."

"It shall. If it is not worthy of production it shall not be placed by me on the boards. I take especial pride in giving to the public only such plays as seem to me to be meritorious."

"But you said you were ready to make me an offer for mine."

"Certainly. I knew that your uncle would not consent to your offering an inferior play and that no work could be inferior which he had supervised."

The visitor, who had meanwhile been invited to take a seat, sat tapping the roll in his hand with his fingers. He was evidently dissatisfied with the turn the affair had taken.

"Come, M. Nostand, or Nostand, if you prefer," he continued, "I will take your play home with me tonight, read it and give you an answer tomorrow. I pledge you my word that if I think it will not be acceptable to the public I shall decline it and you shall be free to offer it where you like. I agreeing to keep your secret."

"Since you already possess that secret," replied the author, with evident reluctance, "I can do nothing but what you propose. I therefore leave my manuscript with you till tomorrow morning at what hour?"

"Ten o'clock. Nine if you prefer it."

"I will call at 10. I shall rely upon you to ignore me and my uncle's reputation in the matter and produce my play only if you consider it meritorious."

"Certainly."

"Remember that my own name, Nostand, must be published as the author, not that of my uncle."

The manager stroked his beard complacently and looked at the author through a pair of shrewd, twinkling eyes.

"It's the play I want," he said, "not the name."

The author withdrew, while the manager, returning to his desk, opened a drawer and took out a printed form of contract, the blank spaces of which he proceeded to fill. Then he unlocked a safe, put M. Nostand's manuscript within its steel doors, shot the bolts and, taking up his hat and cane, left the theater.

The next morning at 10 o'clock the manager was in his office awaiting a call from M. Nostand. At 11 o'clock, when he had not appeared, the brow of the man who had flattered himself that he had secured a prize began to darken. But, remembering that he had the play locked in his safe, his complacency returned to him. At 11:30 the author was announced. He was received with distinguished consideration. The manager handed him the contract he had prepared.

"What's this?" asked the author, glancing at the document.

"You think," said the manager, "that $5,000 advance payment is not enough. Very well, I will make it $10,000."

"Ten thousand," repeated M. Nostand in amazement.

"And the royalty I will double as well."

"Do you consider my poor efforts worth so much?"

"Certainly. It is the work of an expert."

"How do you judge of that?"

"As an expert. It is plain that the scenario received an enormous amount of attention before a word of the dialogue was written, though the dialogue shows the influence of the author of 'Cyrano.' The play will be a grand success."

"Where is the manuscript?"

"Never mind the manuscript. Let us proceed to business. Read the contract?"

"The manuscript?" cried the author impatiently. The manager unlocked his safe and produced it. Seizing it, the author tore off the wrapper and showed only blank pages.

"You are the man," he said, "who a year ago received a play from me. You have never read it to this day, and I have not been able to secure its return. I have played this trick to show that you buy plays simply on the name of the author. I wrote the anonymous letter giving myself away. My name is neither Nostand nor Nostand; it is Jones."

HOW HE GOT OUT OF THE DEBTORS' PRISON

By THOMAS BARBER JUDSON.
(Copyright, 1909, by American Press Association.)

It was visitors' day at Ludlow street jail, New York. Ludlow street jail is a very gentle counterpart of the debtors' prison of the olden time. Its inmates are those in contempt of the inheritance and certain other courts, federal bankrupts, execution and judgment debtors and breach of promise and alimony men.

John Decker had finished his breakfast of rolls, coffee and an egg—he could have breakfasted more heartily had he been able to order from a neighboring restaurant—and was sitting in the lounging room reading a morning paper when a card was handed him. He looked at it, frowned and said:

"I understood when I was put in here that no prisoner was obliged to see his wife. Tell the sheriff that I claim the immunity promised."

The message was delivered, and presently the sheriff himself appeared.

"Your wife says, Mr. Decker, that she has come with the olive branch, and she told me to say in case you declined to receive her that she has your son Johnny with her and wishes to know if you will see him."

The hard lines on Decker's face relaxed.

"Yes, if you will bring him in here." The sheriff retired, and in a few minutes a boy of six came bounding into the room and, springing into his father's arms, covered his face with kisses. They were returned in kind, while a tear stood in the man's eye.

"Mamma gave me a message for you, papa. She says she was told that you were biding money."

"Who told her that?"

"Mrs. Spillre."

"That Jezebel! She made all the trouble."

"And mamma says I was sick and baby was sick, and she was turned out of the rooms, and nothing to buy meat or medicines, and—"

The man put his hand on the boy's mouth.

"Never mind all that, Johnny. I can't bear it."

"And mamma says she's been studying stenography and has got a place. She doesn't wish you to stay here any longer."

"What does she wish me to do?"

"First to forgive her for putting you in here."

"I wish you to come home."

"Johnny, dear, I wish I could do both, but I can do neither."

"Not for me, poppy? Please do—just for me, you know."

"Very well; I'll do the first for you."

"And you'll come home?"

"No; I can't do that."

"Oh, pop, please do!"

"There will be time enough to consider that in the future."

"No, there won't. Mamma says—But I wasn't to tell you."

"Tell me what?"

"That it'll be too late then."

"Oh, it will be too late! In other words, she must dictate just when a reconciliation may take place."

"What's that?"

"Make it up."

"No, that isn't it. I know why, but I won't tell. Mamma says you're so proud. That's one reason."

"I don't understand, Johnny."

"Mamma says if I tell you you'll never come home. You must come home without knowing."

The father studied the boy's face musingly for a time and at last said:

"Well, Johnny, I could never refuse you anything. I'll forgive your mother for putting me in here, and I'll come home, wherever that may be. I suppose it's in a dirty garret. But tell your mother that I won't permit her to do the work for the family. I know where I can get $10 a week as porter. It's pretty hard to take such a place after having employed a hundred men myself, but I've learned that what can't be cured must be endured."

"Oh, poppy!" The boy threw his arms spasmodically around his father's neck, gave him a quick hug and kiss, jumped down and ran away to announce the success of his mission.

It was several days after this before the red tape that held John Decker in prison was cut and he walked out a free man. The hour was 5 in the afternoon. Boarding an elevated train, he started for an address uptown that had been given him as the abode of his wife and children. Leaving the train, he passed down a cross street. Coming to the number that had been given him as his family abode, he concluded there had been a mistake. The place was a handsome apartment house. At the elevator he asked the uniformed boy if he knew where Mrs. Decker lived.

"Fifth floor," replied the boy.

Wonderingly the ex-prisoner entered the elevator, and when it stopped Johnny's eyes were glistening through the grating. In another moment a reunited family were clinging in one embrace.

Mrs. Decker's money had been invested in her husband's business. One of the largest debtors to the firm who had contributed principally to the failure had astounded Mrs. Decker by paying her his debt, a fortune in itself. She wisely brought about a reconciliation with her husband before he knew that after he was aware of it his position would be very different.

There followed a happy reunion dinner.

11 CENT ELECTRICITY.

President Charles L. Edgar of the Edison Electric Company in his annual report just made public has this to say of local interest:

"The recent purchase of electric properties in Newton, Chelsea, Waltham, Brookline, Brighton and Waltham, together with the long-term agreement made with the Boston Suburban Electric Co.'s subsidiaries to supply them with electricity, will increase the earnings of the Edison Co. approximately $600,000 per annum, and will be the means of enabling a further reduction in the retail price of electricity from 12 to 11 cents on January 1, 1910."

W. C. T. U.

There will be a joint meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Unions of Newton and West Newton, on Thursday, Oct. 28, 3 P. M. at the Eliot chapel, Newton. Miss Knilling, a prominent lecturer, will lecture on "Scientific Temperance Instruction in the Public Schools." Every one interested in the vital cause of temperance is invited, particularly the public school teachers and those in charge of the young.

FRUIT CULTURE PAYS.

The agricultural committee of the Boston Chamber of Commerce, of which Mr. Geo. H. Ellis of West Newton is chairman, made an interesting report on fruit culture at the regular monthly meeting and dinner of the Chamber of Commerce last evening.

It is the fashion to speak of New England's soil as sterile. Nothing could be further from the truth. This report presents proofs of the fertility of our soil which it is believed are known to comparatively few farmers and fruit growers. It shows clearly and convincingly that there is no better soil anywhere for the growth of the apple, for instance, than the so-called barren soil of New England, and that Connecticut and Massachusetts lead all the States in the Union in the yield of corn per acre. It shows that the land on which soil lies costs from only five to fifty dollars per acre, whereas the fruit grower in Oregon or Washington, who dominates our market, must pay for suitable land from $200 to $1,000 an acre. It shows that the New England grower is not only at the door of this, the best market in the world, but that by virtue of his ideal strategic position he can save ninety per cent. of the freight charged his most distant competitor, and can leave his fruit to ripen on the tree until the day before it is marketed.

An illustrated copy of the report will be sent to any one interested, free of cost, on request.

NONANTUM MILL LEASED.

W. W. Stall, President and Manager of The Factory Exchange, reports that leases have been passed through his office conveying the Number Four mill of the Nonantum Woolen Company's plant at Nonantum Village in the city of Newton, for five years, to the L. C. Chase Company now located in Cambridgeport. The property includes a modern mill structure one hundred and forty-four feet by one hundred and twenty-five feet with one story and basement, an aggregate of nearly an acre of floor space. The Lessees will practically rebuild the premises and fit for use in assembling, finishing, storing and shipping their lines of blankets, etc.

The "Sillinger" Stakes.

It only takes a few hours to get from any part of England to Doncaster, see the race for the St. Leger and return home. Yet in the coaching times a journey from London to Doncaster occupied a couple of days.

Taking its name from a famous Doncaster sportsman, Colonel St. Leger—properly pronounced "Sillinger"—the race is the second oldest horse racing event in the country. It was founded in 1776 and always arouses the greatest enthusiasm in the north of England. In fact, in the prerailway days laborers living fifty miles away would save up their shillings for weeks, walk to Doncaster, see the race, have a bet and walk home again.

John Scott, who in his day was visited by poets, lawyers, poets and authors of all degrees, trained sixteen St. Leger winners. There have been many memorable finishes to the race, and on one occasion a horse named Theodore, against whom the odds were quoted at 1,000 to a walking stick—officially 1,000 to 5—won handsomely.

The largest field was thirty, in 1825, and the smallest four, in 1783 and 1785. A horse named Ninety-three won in 1793.—London Saturday Review.

Armed With a Saber Hilt.

When William L. Royall of Fauquier county, Va., was seventeen years old he became a Confederate soldier. In his "Reminiscences" he says that the feats performed by the Confederate cavalry in the early part of the war were remarkable, because not one company in ten had any arms that were fit to fight with.

"When I joined my company," he writes, "they gave me a saber which, I think, was used in the Revolution, and this was the only weapon I had. One day, while my regiment was standing in a road, I bantered a comrade to see which of us could cut the largest twig from a tree. I made a powerful cut, and the blade of my saber broke off at the hilt."

"In a short time we were dismounted and ordered to clear the Yankees out of a piece of woods in skirmish formation. We marched through the woods, but fortunately no Yankees were there. I have often wondered what I should have done, armed with that saber hilt, if I had met a Yankee armed with a Springfield musket."

Bees Swarming Have Scouts.

Swarms of bees are sometimes compelled to make refuge in very remarkable shelters. A peculiar and instructive instance was observed by the writer one spring. The swarm flew over a large vineyard which contained few buildings. One of these buildings was constructed of hollow concrete blocks. The swarm flew directly toward a small hole in one of the blocks and disappeared in the interior. No doubt the swarm had rested on a tree or shrub on the preceding day and had sent out scouts to seek a home. The scouts found the little hole leading into the great cavity of the concrete block and reported their discovery to their comrades. This case furnishes indisputable proof that swarming bees really send out scouts, as they are believed to do, for the little hole could not have been discovered in the rapid and lofty flight of the swarm.—Scientific American.

Gymnastics in Switzerland.

Once in every three years the gymnasts of Switzerland and the members of the affiliated clubs in other countries, for the most part composed of Swiss residents abroad, meet to compete in the great contest known as the federal gymnastic festival. A carefully prepared series of exercises is gone through on gymnastic apparatus. There is Swiss wrestling, and there are competitions in the national games of Switzerland, including throwing the stone (a forty pound square block of granite). The festival closes with a display of combined extending exercises in which all the competitors—10,000 at times—take part. Gymnastics are the national pastimes of the Swiss boys and young men, and the clubs they form are recognized and encouraged by the federal government.—Illustrated London News.

Proud Father—And some day make the whole world ring with your eloquence? Freddy—I shouldn't care for that. I want to be an after dinner speaker. Proud Father—Ah, you are ambitious for social distinction, are you? Freddy—No; I want the dinner.—Chicago Record-Herald.

THEATRES

Boston Theatre—The story of the tremendous success of Jos. M. Galtier production of "Three Twins" at the Boston Theatre is best told by the capacity audiences that witness every performance of this very interesting musical comedy. The action is brisk and one of the most gratifying features of the presentation is the keen interest which every member of the organization shows in his or her work. The numerous mechanical effects, which many think are introduced to give the audience a chance to gain its breath during the whirlwind of laughter, all bear the stamp of novelty. The electric swing in which the pony dancers are whirled around the stage at the finale of the first act, is a most startling effect. The stage is darkened and thousands of incandescent lamps of various hues, with which the swing is festooned, are lighted producing an animated color picture of surpassing beauty. Joseph Allen, Daisy Leon, Ada Gordon, Della Niven, W. H. Vedder, William Meehan and Y. D. Benner contribute much to the success of the piece. Matinees are given on Wednesday and Saturday.

Keith's Theatre—Von Blene, who has long been recognized as the greatest cellist in the world, has arranged with one of the most prominent dramatic writers for a sketch in which he would appear as a leading character and introduce his cello solos. The character of a poor music teacher appealed to him and the sketch was written around this idea. It has been meeting with unprecedented success aside from the wonderful playing of the master musician and will be seen for the first time in Boston at Keith's next week. This occasion will also be notable as the last appearance of Annette Kellerman, the Water Queen. The greatest laughing feature will be furnished by Jack Wilson, the black face comedian. A newcomer will be George Austin Moore who sings songs and tells stories in a manner different from anyone now on the stage. Catherine Nelson and Elizabeth Otto will also appear in a new act in which they have been remarkably successful on the circuit and other features will be Gordon Pickens Company in a sketch, Fred Zobel, and attractions yet to be announced.

American Music Hall—The always welcome Scotch comedian, Harry Lauder, will return and begin his engagement at the American Music Hall next Monday. Mr. Lauder has been termed a "miracle of vaudeville" and this seems to be about the best possible way of describing him. During his present engagement which will last two weeks he will introduce several new songs and characterizations. Lafayette's dogs have been held over for another week. These dogs are marvels of canine intelligence and appear to be able to do everything a man can do except talk. The Marimba Band will be another pleasing attraction for music lovers. There will be plenty of laughs in the original playlet of Estelle Wordette and company entitled "A Honey-moon in The Catskills." Ventriloquism seems to be very popular in Boston just now, and for this reason J. W. Winton the renowned Australian artist is due to score heavily with his "McIntyre from Australia." The balance of the bill will include Brunel Kramer Trio Europe's sensational gymnasts, Josie McIntyre character singing comedienne and other star features.

Boston Food Fair—The coming week will offer the final opportunities for a visit to the World's Greatest Food Fair in the vast Mechanics Building on Huntington Avenue, Boston, for it closes on Saturday night, the 30th instant. Among the attractions are the celebrated Bostonia Woman's Orchestra, of fifty young ladies, led by Belle Venton Renfrew, J. W. Gorman's old time circus offering a fine program of acrobatic and equestrian acts and a lot of fun-making clowns, moving picture theatre with the very latest films, one series showing the great reception given Dr. Cook on his arrival at Copenhagen, illustrated concerts by a band of students from the famous institute at Tuskegee founded by Booker T. Washington, and several others of similar excellence. All of the attractions of the Fair are free and to the first 1000 ladies purchasing tickets between 10 and 11 o'clock every morning is presented a very pretty souvenir.

AN OLD PUBLISHING HOUSE IN A NEW HOME.

The removal of the old-established Boston firm of publishers and booksellers, Little, Brown, & Co., to their new and larger quarters at 34 Beacon street, where they are now fully settled, marks another step in the literary business in making in the aristocratic Beacon Hill district of Boston. Yielding to the necessity of obtaining adequate accommodations for their large and constantly increasing publishing business, with separate offices for its various departments and more suitable retail salesrooms, Little, Brown, & Co. purchased the Cabot family mansion at the corner of Beacon and Joy streets, overlooking Boston Common, and adapted the interior of this substantial residence to their own use. Thus the beautifully carved woodwork, the imported marble fireplaces, the tapestried walls have been retained in all their original beauty.

Passing through the vestibule, which has been preserved as originally built for residential purposes, one enters on the street floor the finely appointed bookroom for the sale of books at retail. On this floor also are the commodious salesrooms of the law department.

On the second floor is the suite of offices for the members of the firm, the publishing and advertising departments and the counting room. The third floor provides quarters for the manufacturing and art departments, the offices of the wholesale department, and an attractive wholesale sample room. The fourth floor is occupied by the growing educational and subscription departments. The rooms on the fifth floor are in part devoted to the storage of books and supplies.

Immediately in the rear of the building on Joy street, and connected with it, there has been erected a spacious five-story annex for the wholesale and shipping departments. Little, Brown, & Co.'s bindery and warehouse is in Cambridge, and large shipments of books are also made at this point.

The firm of Charles C. Little and James Brown, began business in Boston in 1837 on the site, 254 Washington street, for so many years occupied by the present firm of Little, Brown, & Co. succeeding Hilliard, Gray & Co., who for more than half a century had done a large business in classical books, in text books for colleges and academies, and in law books. As the successors of Hilliard, Gray & Co. the oldest book and publishing house in Boston, and is in the second century of its history, its origin dating back to 1874, when Ebenezer Battelle kept a bookstore on Northborough street, then that part of Washington street, south of School and north of Elliot street.

The firm has long ranked with the world's foremost publishers of the works of standard authors, and books of history, biography, travel, description, belles lettres, poetry, domestic science, as well as popular fiction, both adult and juvenile. Perhaps no house has issued more of the works of famous American authors. Notable publications include the works of Daniel Webster, Francis Parkman, Capt. A. T. Mahan's epoch making books on "The Influence of Sea Power," the translations of the Polish novels of Henryk Sienkiewicz and the standard literary edition of Dumas, Daudet and Hugo, and Bartlett's "Familiar Quotations."

The firm has been almost from its beginning a leading publishing firm in its lists such famous authorities as Kent, Story and Greenleaf, among the early law writers, and a majority of the notable and standard legal authors of the last quarter of a century.

By acquiring the publishing business of Roberts Brothers in 1898, Little, Brown, & Co. came into possession of many authors and books of widely recognized literary worth. Included in the list taken over were Miss Warner's wonderful translation of Balzac's works, and the writings of such authors as Louis M. Alcott, Dr. Edward Everett Hale, Helen Hunt Jackson, Emily Dickinson, Susan Coolidge, Louise Chandler Moulton, Lillian Whiting, Annie Payson Call, Mary P. Thelston, Mary J. Lincoln, Mary P. Wells Smith, and many others. Nearly 3,000,000 copies of "Little Women" and Miss Alcott's other stories have been sold, and although the author died in 1888, they are the most popular juvenile books today.

More recent writers, whose books are now in active demand, include: E. Phillips Oppenheim, the favorite English novelist; Sidney McCall, author of "Truth Deter;" Mary Devereau, the late Lafcadio Hearn, Laura E. Richards, the late Jeremiah Curtin, author and translator of the works of Sienkiewicz, Mary E. Waller, author of "The Woodcarver" of "Lynpus;" Anne Warner, the creator of "Susan Clegg" and "Aunt Mary;" Maud Howe, "Clegg" and "Aunt Mary;" Maud Howe, Henry C. Shelley, George Wharton James, Anna Chapin Ray, Maud Wilder Goodwin, Eliza Calvert Hall, au-

AN EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITY.

During the 10 days, November 15 to 25, inclusive, a show will be held in Mechanics Building, Boston, which will outrival anything of the kind ever held in New England and anything of recent date held anywhere in the United States. It will be an Electric Show. Everything that uses the great force of electricity will be exhibited and demonstrated. People throughout the New England states who visit this show will have the opportunity to see the latest developments in the great field of applied electricity.

Electricity in its various applications to the home, store and factory is not a luxury. It is a modern necessity. Every store requires its use to be up-to-date and every factory demands its service to be profitable, safe and clean.

The home is distinctively the place for the modern application of electric service. It eliminates kitchen drudgery, because the cooking can be done without discomfort, without annoyance from dust and ashes, and much of the service can be secured right at the dining table. Throughout the house its application is marvelous for its many-fold opportunities.

The Electric Show will prove all these things. It will be the latest, and may truthfully be said to be the "last word" in electrical developments at the present time.

Opportunities will be shown during the show whereby the people of this vicinity can co-operate with the Edison Electric Illuminating Company to help their community grow. This will be one of the distinctive features of the show and should be kept in mind and inquired about between now and then.

PETTEE BABCOCK

The marriage of Mr. Eugene E. Pettee of Newtonville to Miss Margaret E. Babcock, the daughter of Mrs. C. F. Babcock of Roxbury, took place last Saturday evening at the Church of the New Jerusalem, Roxbury. The ceremony was performed at eight o'clock by Rev. Clyde W. Broonell, pastor of the church.

The bride wore a gown of white silk crepe over peau de cygne with embroidered panel and bertha of Venetian point lace. She was accompanied by Miss M. Alice Babcock of Roxbury as maid of honor, wearing pink chiffon cloth over satin and by Miss Mabel W. Pettee of Newtonville, Miss M. Kate Seaver, Miss Bertha M. Whitman of Roxbury and Miss May L. Eddy of Dorchester as bridesmaids, wearing pale green messaline. Mr. William H. G. Wright of Lowell was the best man and Messrs. Ernest J. Babcock, William W. Bell of Roxbury, Charles L. W. Pettee of Hartford, Jefferson Borden, Jr., of Fall River and Arthur W. Emerson of Boston were the ushers.

A reception followed at the home of the bride on Westminister avenue until 10.30 o'clock, the house being attractively decorated with roses, chrysanthemums and laurel. Mr. and Mrs. Pettee were assisted in receiving their friends by Mrs. Babcock, mother of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Pettee, parents of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Pettee will reside at 675 Blue Hill avenue, Roxbury, where they will be at home after February 1st.

RIVER TO BE VIEWED.

With Mayor Hutchinson, City Engineer E. H. Rogers and Street Commissioner Charles W. Ross of this city, Mayor Walker of Waltham, Sebecum George A. Sweetser, Hiram B. Meyers and Joseph L. Seile of Wellesley and the officials of Waco are to join in making an investigation of conditions existing in Charles river, which it is expected will lead to the permanent improvement of that historic stream.

The river will be thoroughly inspected from Newton Upper Falls to the Moody street bridge in Waltham in order to determine where there may be unhealthy growths as a result of the low water during the greater part of the past summer.

By the investigation it will be determined whether the sanitary conditions of the river may be improved by a thorough dredging of the bed. If such work is found to be advisable, the Metropolitan park commission will be asked to assist in the dredging. Last summer quantities of foreign growths that are thought to be detrimental to health appeared in the river.

RICE-MERRIHEW

The wedding of Miss Mary Louise Merrihew, the daughter of Mrs. Edward Taber Merrihew of Newton and Dr. Allen Galpin Rice of Springfield took place on Wednesday evening at Grace church. The ceremony was performed at eight o'clock by Rev. Laurens MacLure, rector of the church. The bride was accompanied by Miss Bertha L. Merrihew as maid of honor, and Mr. John H. G. Williams of Springfield was the best man. The guests were seated by these ushers, Messrs. Stanwood G. Wellington of Chestnut Hill, Frederick E. Rice of Jockville, Dr. Harry C. Ray of Springfield, Dr. Benjamin E. Shibley of Brookline and Dr. Frank L. Richardson and Dr. Gerald Blake of Boston.

A reception followed at the home of the bride, 42 Eldredge street, Dr. and Mrs. Rice being assisted in receiving their many friends by Mrs. Edward T. Merrihew, Bertha L. Merrihew and Mr. and Mrs. John L. Rice. Dr. and Mrs. Rice will reside at 44 High street, Springfield, where they will be at home after January 8th.

OPERATING A PHONOGRAPH.

One need not be afraid of operating a machine too constantly, as there is little danger of wearing it out; and the motor will give better service when used frequently than when allowed to stand unused. In all cases, avoid winding the spring too tightly; stop when it offers strong resistance. In many cases, it is specifically stated that the needles should not be used more than once, and these directions should be observed; not to follow them means almost certain damage to the records. The machine should be kept well oiled; otherwise its motion will become sluggish. Sewing-machine oil may be used for that purpose. The records should be kept free from dust, as dirt clogs the sound-wave grooves and tends to give a scratchy sound to the reproduction. A good record-cleaner may be made by gluing a small piece of velvet carpet to a wooden block. Such a cleaner always should be used on dusty records before they are placed on the machine.—Suburban Life for November.

"CLEAN GAME."

On Saturday last one of the most manliest and evenly matched football games was played on the Cabot park grounds between the Lincoln A. A., Juniors, and the Union A. C. The result favored the Union side by 6 to 0 score. It was a long looked for game, and the punting of Stuart won the game for the Union.

A fumble on Lincoln's 45-yard line and a sudden recovery of the ball by Union resulted in the score.

CABOT-LANE

Miss Alice Howard Lane, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eusebe Lane of Newtonville became the bride of Mr. Harry Dwight Cabot last Wednesday evening, the ceremony taking place at the home of the bride on Brooks avenue. Rev. Julian C. Jaynes of the West Newton Unitarian church officiated and the bride looked charming in ivory white satin dress with point lace. She carried a bridal bouquet of lilies of the valley. There were no attendants, and only the immediate families were present. The house was attractively decorated with pink and white chrysanthemums and autumn foliage.

Mr. and Mrs. Cabot will reside at 561 Watertown street, where they will be at home on the second and fourth Tuesdays after December first.

A MISTAKEN IDEA.

Many people have gained the impression that only the very wealthy can afford to sit for the beautiful photographs made at the studio of Morris Burke Parkinson, 603 Boylston street (Copley square), Boston. This is a mistake which can be corrected by calling or sending for price list. Prices, considering the quality of work, will be found very reasonable. Now is the time to sit for Christmas Portraits. Visitors for inspection are always welcome whether they desire sittings or not.

MAN KILLED

Thomas W. Westwood, aged 70 years, of 27 Richardson street, was instantly killed by falling from a staging at the residence of Miss Martinetta Wright at 450 Centre street, Newton, last Monday, about one o'clock, while carpentering. Dr. Frank R. Stubbs and Dr. M. E. Gleason were quickly summoned, but they found the man to be past human aid, having received a fracture of the spine.

Mr. Westwood was a native of Burlington, N. S. He had been a resident of Newton 40 years and was employed by Mr. Henry F. Wellington, the builder. He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Herbert E. Eames, and a son, Frank G. Westwood, both of this city. The funeral took place Wednesday at 2 P. M. at his late home.

Funeral services were held from the family residence Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock and were conducted by Rev. Dr. George S. Butters, pastor of the Methodist church. The burial was in Newton cemetery.

AN AMERICAN POPULAR SONG ENDORSED BY ROYALTY.

That a popular song should achieve the distinction of being sung at a private concert given exclusively for the entertainment of a certain monarch and his friends, is in itself quite unusual, and even more unusual are the facts attending its reception. For obvious reasons the name of the monarch is withheld from publication.

A well-known European concert singer, while in America, secured a copy of a new high-class ballad, "My Way to Heaven is Through Your Love, Sweetheart," intending to use it as an encore number. Upon her return to Europe, she was advised that she was to sing at a concert to be held at the concert room in the palace of..... After her rendition of three of her classic numbers, the royal host personally sent a request that she sing another song of a somewhat lighter character. The singer decided to sing, "My Way to Heaven is Through Your Love, Sweetheart," which scored so signally, that he repeated it. After the concert, he was duly presented to the monarch, who, in complimenting her, spoke in a particularly enthusiastic manner of the popular number she had rendered.

Thus, perhaps, for the first time in the history of songs, an American composition was endorsed by royalty.

BAD ACCIDENT

While working on the roof of the house occupied by Mr. William Donald in the rear of Centre street, Newton, last Monday morning, Lewis Rodd of Pearl street was thrown to the ground by the giving way of a rope. He was badly injured with a broken leg, arm and three ribs, and rendered unconscious. He was attended by Dr. Webber and removed to the Newton hospital.

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.

The Massachusetts Agricultural college has recently issued an illustrated booklet which contains a large amount of interesting information about the institution—its object, entrance requirements, courses of study, equipment, student life, opportunities for its graduates, etc. It is illustrated with about twenty-five views which indicate that at Amherst, a spot of unusual natural beauty, there is located one of the most progressive and adequately equipped educational institutions of New England. It is also evident that the college is thoroughly preparing young men for positions of trust and influence in the various agricultural vocations. One of the noticeable features about the institution is that this fall its entering class numbers 130, and that its total enrolment of four year students is 315, both these figures represent all increase in attendance of over 100 per cent in the last six years. A copy of this publication may be secured by writing to the President's Office, and asking for the M. A. C. Booklet.

POLITICAL COMMENT.

It is the stay at home vote in off years that causes the painful surprises read in the papers the morning after an election when it is discovered that some faithful public servant has just squeezed by or perhaps fallen by the wayside. It is usually a good republican who is the victim. This is one of the off years when history can repeat itself, but the key to the situation is held by the republicans themselves. Are you working and have you set aside November 2 as a day of service to a faithful state administration?

A package of love letters makes a good fire and heats up temporarily; so does a stove. For zero weather, it is better to have steam or hot water heat connected to a "WINCHESTER," for this never disappoints. Made by Smith & Thayer Co., 236 Congress street, Boston, Mass.

A highly interesting meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Newton and West Newton was held Thursday afternoon in Eliot church, when Miss Christine Thining of England gave a copiously illustrated lecture on "Scientific Temperance Instruction in the Public Schools." Miss Thining's very interesting lecture was supplemented by numerous witty anecdotes and rhymes, holding perfectly the attention of her audience for an hour. The ushers were members of the Young Women's branch, the collection being taken by youthful members of the Loyal Legion. Mrs. W. E. Birdsall presided, in the absence of the president, Mrs. S. L. Eaton.

THEATRES

Castle Square Theatre—"A Parisian Romance" will be the play at the Castle Square next week, and its combination of vividly emotional scenes and comedy, promise to provide an entertainment of exceptional interest. Mr. Craig is endeavoring to offer Bostonians a wide variety of plays as is possible, and certainly three successive weeks could not bring forth anything more dissimilar than "The Circus Girl," "Hamlet," and "A Parisian Romance." In each of these the John Craig Stock Company shows the wide range of its extraordinary versatility, and in each, the Boston public is offered the best things available for stock company production. The scenes of "A Parisian Romance" are laid in the French capital, and its leading characters are people in the high life of that fascinating city. The action moves around the extraordinary personality of the Baron Chevalier, banker and man of the world, and it is he that furnishes the play with its strongest incidents.

Boxon Theatre—Sparkling with witty lines and full of scenic and costume innovations, "Three Twins" is enjoying the limit of prosperity at the Boxon Theatre. The humor of the situation of the three men who resemble each other is capably worked out under the leadership of Clifton Crawford, whose impersonation of the rather inconsequential son of a rich father is one of the best comic characterizations that has been given to the stage in recent years. There are summer girls and bathing girls and ruined nurses and maids and Yama Yama girls dancing and prancing in flashing costumes that would put the rainbow to shame. There are a series of novel and daring effects including an aerial swing, a mystifying canoe ride, walking chairs and a huge moving face of a very pretty girl, which winks and smiles bewitchingly upon the audience. In fact the show from beginning to end is crowded with a maze of clever entertainment, such as seldom finds its way into the present day musical comedy. The regular matinees are given on Wednesday and Saturday. In the evening the curtain is raised promptly at eight o'clock and at the afternoon performances at 2 o'clock.

Kelth's Theatre—The experience of Nat Willis who has long been known as "The Happy Tramp" has probably never been duplicated by an artist in this country. Willis, who will be one of the features at Kelth's next week, has been in vaudeville most of his life with the exception of several starring tours in the "legitimate." When the Lambs arranged their mammoth Gambo last summer every actor of prominence volunteered, Willis among them, and like the others he was content to take whatever part was assigned to him. Willis was unquestionably the bright particular star of the Lambs and their greatest Gam-

bol and he will appear at Kelth's with a monologue that is said to be even better than that which attracted such widespread attention. He will be a feature of one of those big bills that Mr. Kelth is presenting this winter with such happy results; a bill made up of headliners which will be announced later.

Hollis Street Theatre—Grace George has secured a tremendous hit in her new comedy, "A Woman's Way," by Thompson Buchanan, which comes to the Hollis Street Theatre for a two weeks' engagement beginning Monday, Nov. 1st. The usual matinees will also be given. Those who were charmed with the beautiful work of Miss George in Sardou's "Divorcée" should not fail to see her in her new play, for in part of Marion Stanton she has a role which fits her even better than Cyrenne. Cyrenne is a spoiled French girl, but Marion Stanton is a charming common-sense brave American girl, whose courage and sense of humor in the face of a trying situation wins all hearts. Marion Stanton discovers that her husband has become infatuated with a fascinating Southern widow, and instead of resorting to the hysteria and tears that might ordinarily be expected, she recognizes the fact that a man is likely to go to a woman who appeals to the meat of his nature. The one thing to do is to get her husband, and this she cleverly accomplishes by bringing the widow into the Stanton home, and by the force of contrast and clever manipulation showing her shallowness and general undesirability.

Tremont Theatre—Henry W. Savage's third important production of the season, "The Love Cure," has proved the sensational musical success of the season in New York, and will be given for a limited engagement beginning Monday, Nov. 1, at the Tremont Theatre. In no other New England city will "The Love Cure" be presented by Mr. Savage this season. "The Love Cure" is European as to music and American as to libretto, the score being by that eminent Viennese composer, Edmund Eysler, and the book by America's wit-humorist, Oliver Herford. The locale of the action is the metropolis itself and the characters are all American, the story having to do with the love of a young prima donna and the son of a rich man of high social status, with the chief complication brought about by the rivalry for the heroine's affections on the part of her rather mature artistic associate. Herr Eysler's music stands as quite the most fascinating of the year. Its haunting witchery, notable sweetness and remarkable artistic qualities stamp it as in a class almost all its own. Mr. Savage's supremacy as a producer has never been more definitely demonstrated than in the three magnificent settings. Beautiful costumes and stage detail of a noteworthy sort add their part. Dainty Lina Abarbanell, who won such honors here last season as Sonia in "The Merry Widow," is jointly "featured" in the cast with Charles J. Ross, long a favorite funmaker on Broadway.

Women's Clubs

With the coming in of November the club season is once more under full sway. Again the Club Editor extends greetings to the club women of Newton and begs their co-operation that this column may be of ever increasing interest and usefulness in the dissemination of information relating to the club activities. To insure publication in a certain issue notices should be sent not later than Wednesday evening, except by special arrangement, of the desired week. They should be written only on one side of the paper and signed by the one responsible for them. Address all notices to Miss Grace M. Burt, 94 Charlesbank road, Newton.

Already the various departments of the Massachusetts State Federation are well underway on the new year's work. Most of the standing committees have held meetings and early in October the chairman met in conference with the president of the Federation at Hotel Vendome. Today the Conference of Presidents was entertained by the Dorchester Woman's Club at their club house. A full report of which will be given next week. The Forestry Department of the State Federation will hold a conference at Milton on Thursday, November 4, at 2 o'clock, in the Parish House on Canton avenue. Train for Milton leaves South Station at 1.29. Clubs are requested to notify Mrs. Murray Ruggles, 25 School street, Milton, how many representatives will attend.

The fall meeting of the Massachusetts State Federation will be held at Brockton on November 11. By vote of the Executive Board the luncheon will be a box luncheon. Tea and coffee will be supplied at a nominal price. A special train will leave Boston at 9 A. M. returning at 4 P. M. Full details will be given next week.

The Newton Mothers' Club will meet at the home of Mrs. W. B. Arnold, 515 Walnut street, Newtonville, on Monday, Nov. 1, at 3 P. M. Mr. Carl Carstens, president of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children will address the meeting.

The Waban Woman's Club opens its season with a reception and musicale at the home of Mrs. William Gilmore on Neholuden road on Monday afternoon, Nov. 1st.

The Social Science Club resumes its sessions on Wednesday with the regular business meeting.

The Newton Ladies' Home Circle will hold a winter on Tuesday, November 2d, at 2.15 at the home of Mrs. F. C. Lyons, 2181 Washington street, Newton Lower Falls.

POLITICAL COMMENT.

Voters who feel only a passing interest in the fortunes of the republican state ticket this year because they regard it as certain that the figures on the morning after election day will tell the same old satisfactory story, should remember the important fact so often repeated and never fully appreciated, that every vote counts. The republicans of Boston failed by just four votes to elect a republican congressman in the 10th district last fall and hundreds of republicans afterwards said that if they thought the party candidate had any chance they would have voted. Let all republicans do their full duty this year and there will be no doubt about Draper and Frothingham getting the plurality that they have fairly earned through conscientious public service.

GOOD GOVERNMENT.

An organized movement of the Republicans of this section has just been completed. The object is to aid in the naturalization and registration of citizens, the general education upon the ward committee in their general Good Government lines, and to aid work.

The officers are: Reuben Forknall, president; Joseph Pouliot, vice president; William Hanson, secretary; Edwin O. Childs, Jr., treasurer. Executive committee, John W. Blakeney, John T. Beale, Joseph M. Lavole, Paul Champagne, William Perlmutter.

Charter Objection

First One in Years Overruled By President Weston

A charter objection, the first in many years, and the ruling of it by President Weston, were the special features of the meeting of the aldermen last Monday evening.

What promised to be a dull and routine session, suddenly developed into one of intense interest. The cause of the discussion was the presentation of an order from the Finance committee for the acceptance of the act authorizing pensions for police officers, and the refusal of the board to lay the matter over for two weeks at the request of Alderman Doherty for more time to consider the matter. Alderman Doherty then interposed a charter objection to further consideration at that meeting and to the amazement of everyone, it was promptly ruled out of order by President Weston, who took the ground that as the matter had been before the board at a previous session in the form of a petition, a charter objection would not apply. The order was then adopted. After the session several members of the board raised the question as to the validity of the ruling of the chair and notice of reconsideration of the vote has been filed with the City Clerk.

Aldermen Avery, Burr, Cabot, Clarke, Day, Doherty, Gray, Jones, Leonard, Lyons, Miller, Moore, Palmer, Underwood, White and Williamson were present when President Weston called to order. No one appeared at hearings on petitions of the Telephone Co. for attachments on Langley road, of the Western Union Telegraph Co. for attachments on Washington street and of the Edison Co. for underground conduits on Boylston street and the last two were subsequently ordered granted.

Venues were received for ten jurors for the Cambridge Superior Court on Nov. 3 and for four jurors for Nov. 8th. Alderman Doherty drew the names of S. L. Durgin, Arlington street, W. H. Chapple, Hillside road, James K. Hemphill, Boylston street, Richard C. Jacobs, Auburndale avenue, Elmer E. B. Johnson, Central street, Reginald W. P. Brown, Walnut street, Francis A. Skelton, Chestnut street, Charles N. Pitts, Bellevue street, William H. S. Pearce, Newtonville avenue and Paul Gaudet, Rustic street. Alderman Moore drew the names of Edward D. Van Tassel, Newtonville avenue, Nelson G. Cooley, Central street, Robert O. Brigham, Pine Ridge road and Alfred W. Small, Lake avenue.

The mayor submitted his estimates of receipts and expenditures for 1910, the budget amounting to $1,258,175.23, an increase of $12,692.33 over the present year.

The invitation of the Edison Electric Co. to visit their plant was accepted and Aldermen Underwood, Clarke and Gray appointed a committee to arrange details.

Petitions of Albert H. Waitt for auctioneer license, and of J. W. Crowell for license for 4 public tax cabs were granted. Hearings were ordered on petitions of F. W. Remick to keep gasoline on Exeter street, of the Telephone Co. for poles on Hillside road, attachments on Clinton street and Lincoln avenue, and of the Edison Co. for poles on Brookside avenue and for attachments on Parsons street, Brookside avenue, Islington road and Homer street.

Petitions were received from G. K. Stacy et al for increase in pay, Lemuel Van Wart for Common Victualer license, 833 Washington street, F. G. Marsh for sewer in Chestnut street, G. M. Winslow of Lasset to place wires underground across Woodland road, Lake avenue, Myrtle avenue and Seminary avenue, from Henry Paul for damages caused by drain, W. E. Hickey for wagon license, and from W. W. Becket et al for sidewalk and street lights on Morton street.

On recommendation of committees, a grant of $9,128 was made for city expenses to Nov. 15, the pool room license of W. Q. Gulliver transferred to 791 Washington street, Common Victualer license granted to Louis B. Cazala at 315 Centre street, permits to conduct dancing parties granted in Lincoln hall to T. J. F. Phillips on Wednesday nights and to J. E. Anderson on Saturday nights to 11.30 o'clock, water mains were authorized in Bristol road and Gilbert street, the City Clerk authorized to contract for printing city reports for 1909, the Mayor granted authority to sell certain unused land owned by the city, the Telephone Co. granted a pole location in St. James street, and a hearing ordered for Nov. 8 on laying a sewer in Woodbine terrace.

Orders were also adopted calling the city election for Dec. 7, granting the Gas Light Co. permission to open Dartmouth street and Cherry street and settling claim of W. C. McIntosh for $300.

When the order accepting the police pension act was presented, Alderman Doherty asked for information and Alderman Day said that the convincing arguments advanced by the petitioners had caused the committee to favor it. The law has recently been changed and is now satisfactory to all concerned. The chief argument in favor is the better service to be obtained if the men were assured of a pension and from the better class of applicants for the police service. It was also only just to our force to place them on the same basis as the 14 other cities which had adopted the act.

Questions of Alderman Doherty were finally answered by Chief Mitchell, who said that under this act, officers could be pensioned without their consent; that there was no one at present who was not able and willing to work for full pay; and that he had not heard of any opposition to the pension plan from any member of the department.

Alderman Doherty said that he had been informed that there was some opposition to the act from the officers themselves and asked that the matter be laid over until the next meeting. The motion was declared lost by the chair, whereupon Alderman Doherty interposed a charter objection, which was overruled as above stated. The board adjourned at 9.20.

POLITICAL COMMENT.

The issues of free trade, protection or reciprocity have no place in a campaign for the election of State officers in Massachusetts this year. The question every voter should answer November 2 is, "Has Governor Draper given the Commonwealth a good administration, and does he deserve a second term?" Another question is whether the Governor is a safer and better balanced man than his opponent. The verdict will be up to you, Mr. Voter, in a few days.

INTERURBAN RAILWAY FARES.

The Hartford & Springfield Street Railway is the latest to illustrate a tendency of the times by voting, at the annual meeting of its stockholders in Hartford recently, to advance its unit of fare from five to six cents. This change will take effect at the beginning of the coming month, but will be operative only in Connecticut, where its owned lines are located. The Massachusetts end of the road is operated through trackage rights over lines of the Springfield company. The explanation given, with much detail by the directors, appears to be a justification of the course decided upon. The company has about forty-five miles of track and it is said to have been honestly capitalized and honestly operated. The road runs on both banks of the river and operates two important branches.

The east-side and the west-side lines show a small profit per mile for every car run; but this is more than offset by the losses on the branches. The only dividend on the common stock was one of two per cent six years ago, and no dividend has been earned or paid on the preferred stock for the last two years. For the year ending June 30, 1908, the company had a little over $1800 to apply to dividends and surplus, after paying operating expenses, taxes and interest on bonds. On the same date this year there was a deficit of $257 and if due allowance had been made for depreciation that deficit would have been considerably larger.

It is plausibly contended that there is a general need for readjustment of fares on interurban or long-distance lines. The city railroads have an offset in the natural growth in population, which benefits to a much smaller extent the long-distance roads. For the past two or three years, it is claimed, "every street railway in New England has been laboring under very adverse circumstances due to the rapidly increasing cost of operation." This increase includes the wages of employees, and the cost of fuel, oils and all other commodities that enter into the service. Certainly the situation there is by no means unique. The example has been set by a number of long-distance lines—fourteen of them in Massachusetts. The public would doubtless prefer to pay the increased fare rather than submit to an impairment of the service. It has come to look upon high prices as a matter of course, but quickly resents deprivation of privileges that it has once enjoyed.

SCHOOLMASTERS DINE.

The annual meeting of the Schoolmasters' Club of Newton was held Saturday evening at the Brae Burn Country Club, covers being laid for 26. President Frank W. Chase presided and the guests and speakers were Aldermen Frank A. Day, Capt. S. E. Howard of the School Committee, Head Master Charles L. Kirschner of the Technical High School.

The new officers elected were: President, Mr. Charles D. Meserve; vice president, Mr. S. Warren Davis; secretary-treasurer, Mr. S. B. Paul.

Briefly stated, the Democratic arguments against Governor Draper are:
First, the alleged loss of Senator Lodge; second, the high prices of the necessities and the so-called eight-hour bill. Any sensible voter will readily admit that Governor Draper has absolutely nothing to do with the making of the tariff, whether or not that malignant measure is responsible for the cost of living. A vote against Governor Draper on that issue shows a lack of common sense on the part of the citizen which seems improbable.
To those of us who know him, the suggestion that Governor Draper is "incensed" by Senator Lodge is ludicrious. Not in years have we had a governor whose independence and high character have been so pronounced as in Governor Draper. Even if Senator Lodge was disposed to make suggestions to the governor, regarding state matters, it is a fair statement that the Senator's views would be given exactly the same consideration, and no more, than those of other men prominent in the party.
The idea that Governor Draper can be "bossed" by any one is incredible.
The sole ground on state matters that Mr. Vahey has against the Governor is his veto of the so-called eight-hour bill. Voters should thoroughly understand that eight hours has been the legal work day of the state for some years, Newton having accepted it several years ago. The bill which Governor Draper fittingly vetoed was a vicious amendment to the present law and one designedly put up to him for political purposes. Its passage was opposed by all decent legislators and true friends of labor. It is on such matters as these that the opponents to Governor Draper hope to win next Tuesday. Any failure to support the Governor under such circumstances and on such arguments seems inconceivable in this city. A half vote for Mr. Vahey by failing to cast a ballot for the Governor would be a great pity, as Governor Draper's work to reduce the state tax has been of material benefit to Newton and his administration of the state's business has been of the highest class. Vote for Governor Draper next Tuesday.

RECEPTION.

The annual reception to Rev. and Mrs. Julian C. Jaynes was held last Friday evening at the West Newton Unitarian church. The parish house was beautifully decorated with palms, chrysanthemums and autumn leaves, clusters of brilliant oak leaves being massed about the windows with fine effect. Mr. Henry Whitmore, chairman of the standing committee, and Mrs. Whitmore assisted in receiving and a large number of parishioners were present. Mrs. Harry L. Tilton of the Hospitality committee was in charge and Mrs. John A. Potter was chairman of the decorating committee.

TRAFFIC CENSUS.

recently taken at the corner of Washington street and Commonwealth avenue for the period of one week shows

light, 580, single horse heavy, 540,
two horse light, 553, two horse heavy, 213, runabout, 55, touring cars, 843, total, 2584.

horse light, 298, single horse heavy,
241, two horse light, 32, two horse

MR. MILLER TO SERVE

We are authorized to state that Alderman Franklin T. Miller of Ward 4 is a candidate for reelection for the two year term. He has the hearty support of a large majority of the voters of the ward and also of many of the leading men of the city, without respect to party, owing to his excellent work for both the city and ward.

It has been the usual custom of the alderman at large to succeed himself for one or two terms and from the fact that more than half of the aldermen are retiring this year, it is desirable that as many as possible of the old members be returned. This is particularly true in Alderman Miller's case as there will be only a few of the old finance committee, one of the most important committees of the board, returned.

NEWTON CENTRE PLAYGROUND NOTES.

The Intermediate Football League of six teams is started on its schedule and the Newton Highlands and Newton Centres are now tied for first place with two wins each.

On last Saturday the Newton Centres played the N. H. S. Sophomores a most closely contested game, resulting in a 6-5 win for the Sophomores.

It is planned to have important games on the playground every Saturday afternoon and this week the N. H. S. Freshmen are to play the Newton Centres.

That outdoor basketball is an attractive game for the fall months has been clearly shown by the numbers of girls that have responded to the invitation to enter the game on the new field. The committee in charge have had from 50 to 75 players on the grounds every Tuesday and Thursday. Regular teams with schedule of matches will soon be formed.

In the Junior Football League the Huskers play the Alerts this afternoon and if the former wins it will enable them to tie the Huskers for first place in the league series, if they lose the Huskers are champions for this year.

Directly after the Junior Football League finishes its schedule, Mr.
Howard will call for general soccer football practice and, later, teams will be formed. To give our boys an idea of the game at its best, the management of the N. E. Soccer Football League has invited as many boys as can spare the time to go to attend
the game at Franklin Park, Saturday, Nov. 6, between two of the best teams
in this country, namely, the Boston Rovers, two year champions of the Boston District League, and the Lynn Clays, winners of the Williamson Challenge Cup. Officials will be present to explain the plays in the game.
Further particulars of the time, route and committee to go with the boys, will be given next week.

C. Herron were the ushers.

A reception followed the ceremony.

ner. The house was attractively decorated with lavender and pink chrysanthemums and lighted with candles.
Mrs. Nelson Freeman furnished the music.

Mr. and Mrs. Wagner will reside at 45 Palmouth street, Boston, where they will be at home after January

MR. SCOTT DECLINES

The following letter is published by request:

October 26, 1909.

Madison Bunker, V. D., V. S., Park Street,
Newton, Mass.

My dear Doctor:—

Permit me to call to your attention
as Chairman of Ward 7 Committee, the fact that I do not desire to have my name put before the coming caucus as a candidate for Alderman for the City of Newton. If I had been present at your committee meetings during the summer, I never should have allowed myself, as a member of your committee, to be mentioned as a candidate for office. But when, in the latter part of September, on the eve of a journey South, having been absent from your deliberations, one of your members asked me to consider going to the Board of Aldermen,
I stated that two other men whom I realized would be sacrificing as much as I in serving the City, had certified their willingness to be nominated, I promised to think it over, and subsequently informed the member of my willingness to serve.

I spoke to no one of my decision to go into the caucus, and find upon my return, that the usually desirable procedure of the office seeking the man, has been set aside by an anxious aspiring man, actively and zealously seeking the office, who by personal solicitation has enrolled a goodly number of men in his cause, many of them my warmest friends.

As it would place these friends, who had through an entire misapprehension of the purpose of enrolling themselves in favor of the aspirant, in a position to prevent any necessity of neighbors taking sides where no issue is involved, I must respectfully decline to become a candidate. The City will no doubt be served with disincen-sity by the self-appointed candidate, and the best interests of the Ward will not be jeopardized.

I could have telephoned you all of this letter but preferred to bring the matter formally before your committee.

Thanking you and your committee for the honor contained in your expression of confidence in desiring to have me serve the City, and trusting that you will appreciate my reasons for refusing to do so, I am,
Very sincerely yours,
ARNOLD SCOTT.

Playing many of its second line men, Newton high lost to Massachusetts institute of technology sophomores, 11 to 0, on Cliffin field Wednesday afternoon, while the members of Waltham high team and their coach, "Nate" Tufis, sat in the grandstand and watched the progress of the contest with great glee.

Newton saved some of its best players for the Worcester game next Saturday, and the team also hesitated in making some of its best plays with the Waltham team, which it will meet later in the season, watching every play.

The technology players outweighed
the Newton team. The visitors made their first touchdown from a fumble.
In the second period Newton recovered the ball on the 5-yard line but failed to score. The playing of Allen, Barber and Osborne was particularly creditable.

The election of officers of the class of 1912 took place Wednesday, Oct.
20. Mr. Warren L. Tapley of Newtonville was elected president; Miss Dorothy Wellington of Newton, vice

87 MILK STREET, BOSTON

MRS. WHITING DEAD.

Mrs. Mary B. Whiting, who died Tuesday at her home at 11 Washington street, Newton, at the age of eighty-one, was the widow of John B. Whiting, the brush manufacturer. Mrs. Whiting, who had a long illness, was the daughter of Moses and Mary Moore Sawin of Southboro. Her father was for many years a miller in Natick and Southboro, and the mill owned by him was on a site granted by the Indians.

Mrs. Whiting was married in 1852. During the lifetime of her husband she co-operated actively with him in helping on the best reforms of the time, and it was a source of gratification to them that the anti-slavery cause and others in which they were especially interested met with success. Altho long an invalid, she contributed time and money generously to many deserving causes and private charities. Among the most intimate friends and neighbors of Mrs. Whiting, when living in Boston, were Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Parker.

Mrs. Whiting and her husband were much interested in the Twenty-Eighth Congregational Society during its existence. The cause in which she was most interested was that of woman suffrage. In 1892 Mrs. Whiting died while building a Newton residence. Mrs. Whiting moved there in that year and since then, the family have been connected with Channing church, Sarah Hull chapter, D. R. Equal Suffrage League and other societies. Mrs. Whiting is survived by three daughters, Mrs. F. W. Webber, Miss Anna M. Whiting and Mrs. H. G. Ives, the latter last named a resident of Andover, N. H.

Mrs. Whiting's funeral was held at 11 o'clock at Washington street, Rev. Adelbert L. Hudson gave the service with music by Rev. Henry G. Ives. Miss Marion Haskell of Newton Centre, a personal friend, sang three songs which were favorites of Mrs. Whiting, "Nearer, My God, To Thee," "Rock of Ages" and "Eternal Goodness" by Whittier. General reception rooms and desk on the main floor, as you enter.

On either side of the central lobby are placed billiard and pool tables, and at the extreme right hand end of the front is a large library and reading room. On either side of the entrance doorway are two cozy alcoves. Generous staircases lead up on either side to the second floor, where are located the Director's room, Ladies' parlor, with cloak room, and a hall for lectures and small banquets. This hall has adjacent to it, ample kitchens and serving rooms with a service staircase and lift to a rear entrance. The balance of the front portion of the building is occupied by six class rooms. On the main floor occupying the left hand side of the building, is a boy's suite. In front a large reading room for the larger boys; further back, a reading and game room for the younger boys, with the desk of their special secretary adjacent to this. The boys have a side entrance of their own.

The Physical Department of the work has been made prominent as in most of the recent Association buildings. The Physical Director's office is on the main floor just back of the main desk, and next to the general secretary's office. The Gymnasium is on the main floor and has a door opening directly from the central lobby, so that it can be used on special occasions for lectures or large banquets. A serving room is provided adjacent to the Gymnasium and connected to the service entrance and the kitchen on the second floor by a lift and stairs. A small visitors' gallery is placed a few steps above the level of the Gymnasium floor, so near to the desk that it may be under control. Stairs from the small gallery lead up to the larger visitors' gallery on the level with the second floor and just above the level of a running track gallery, which may be used for spectators at basketball games and athletic meets. Open air hand ball courts are placed on a rear roof at level of running track gallery. Great care has been taken to provide ample locker facilities. The younger boys have their locker room and baths on the main floor adjacent to the office of the boys' secretary, and entered from the younger boys' amusement room. A special staircase gives them access to the swimming pool in the basement. The larger boys' locker room is adjacent to their staircase and is placed beneath the central lobby, and under the immediate supervision of the attendant's office in the basement. The ladies' men's locker room has connecting a rest room and contains in addition to commodious lockers, a number of dressing room lockers and a shower bath. The bathing facilities comprise shower baths, steam baths and drying rooms, massage rooms and swimming pool, 25x60. The light court over the swimming pool, has balconies from which the public may view aquatic sports. The bowling alleys are placed on the left hand side of the basement, accessible by a special staircase near the desk on first floor. Next the alleys are placed a locker room for bowlers, with shower baths and access to the swimming pool. A series of dressing rooms for visiting teams are provided in this locker room. These would also answer for dressing rooms for any of the general public who might wish to the swimming pool independent of the Gymnasium. A recreation room with lunch counter are located in the front left hand corner of the building accessible from the bowling alleys or from the basement staircase.

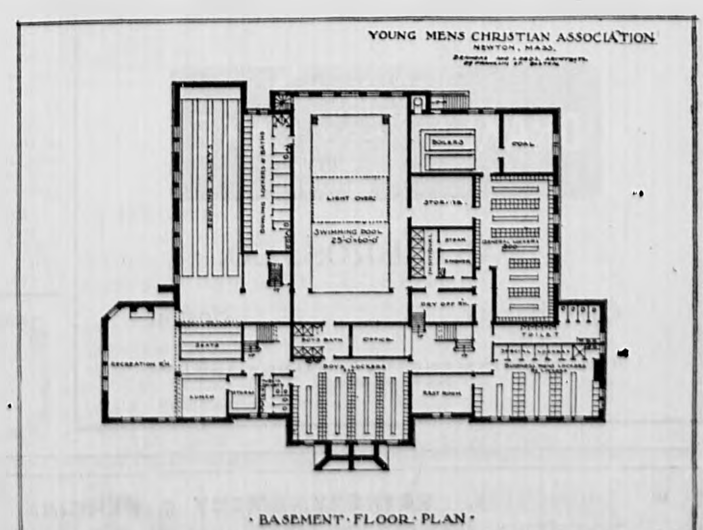

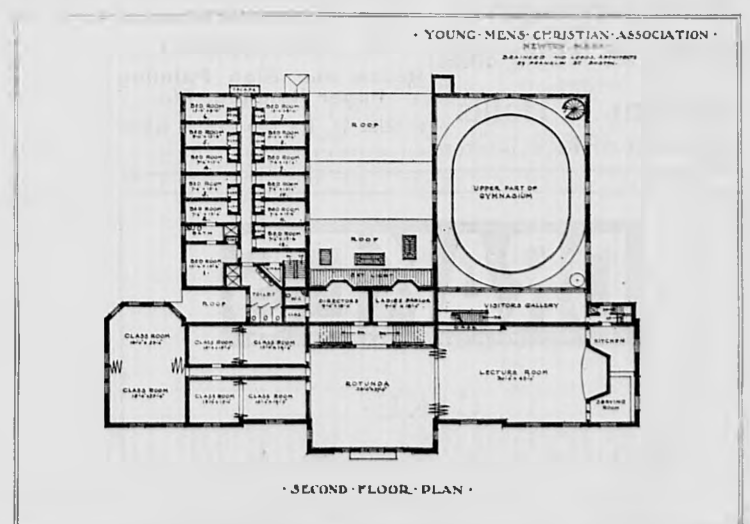

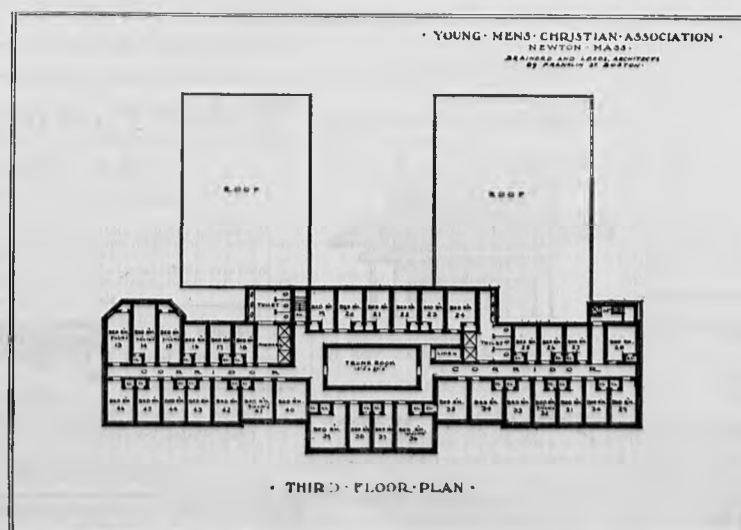

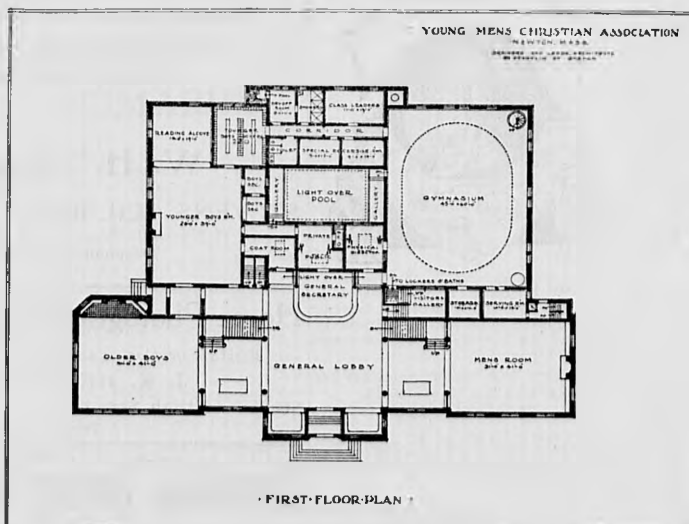

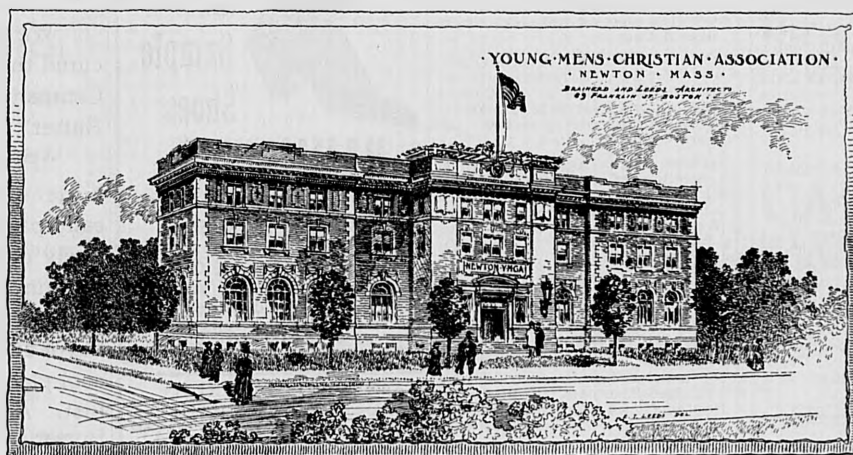

The left hand wing of the second story and the entire third story of the main building, are devoted to dormitories for young men; forty-six rooms are provided. It has been the general experience of Associations that such rooms are one of the best ways of raising revenue as well as of reaching young men.

POLICE WANT PENSIONS.

The police assembled in mass meeting Wednesday forenoon to express their sentiments regarding the pension act. Through the efforts of a committee the Newton police benefited from the Newton police benefit act. A canvas of each member resulted in it being definitely shown that the members of the police were unanimously in favor of the pension act being adopted at this time.

CITY POLITICS

Active work has been done the past week in regard to algermanic candidates for which lists will be filed week after next. In ward one, additional candidates for algermanic at large have entered the field, which now consists of ex-alderman Reuben Forinall, Mr. Frank D. Frisbie, Mr. Arthur W. Blakemore, Mr. Hugh Campbell and Mr. J. William Blakeley. In ward two, Alderman Cabot will retire and Mr. Willard S. Higgins will succeed him. In ward three, the situation on the north side of the track is still unsettled, the Republicans standing ready to endorse an acceptable Democratic candidate, while a contest is in sight for the Democratic nomination between Daniel O'Connell and Mr. George M. Cox. In ward four, Alderman Miller will succeed himself for the two year term. Mr. Leinauer early will take a place on the ward committee and Alderman Lyons will probably be unopposed if he secures a re-election. In ward six the good news is announced that Alderman Allison Burr of Chestnut hill has yielded to the great pressure which has been brought to bear upon him and will return for the one year term. Mr. Allen F. Bemis, who had agreed to take Mr. Burr's place and had made the necessary business arrangements to enable him to do so, having been one of the leaders in the effort to induce Mr. Burr to return. In ward seven, Mr. Arnold Scott retires from a possible contest, as noted in a letter published in another part of this paper.

PASTEURIZED BUTTER

We take pleasure in announcing that we have secured the exclusive agency for the Hutchinson Produce Company's celebrated Premium Brand Pasteurized Butter.

"Premium Brand" differs from any other creamery butter on the market inasmuch as it has been scientifically pasteurized before churning. This treatment positively destroys all disease germs or injurious bacteria contained in the milk, and renders Premium Brand an absolutely pure and wholesome food product, of superior flavor and unequalled keeping quality. If kept in a dry cool place the last will always be found as good as the first. Ask your doctor what he thinks of Pasteurized Butter.

We feel confident that a fair trial of this butter will make you a permanent user.
